

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 07-07

(Correction to SCR Civil 77)

WHEREAS, a publishing error in 2002 omitted the last sentence from then paragraph (d) of Rule of Civil Procedure 77 that read: “Lack of notice of the entry by the Clerk does not affect the time to appeal or relieve or authorize the Court to relieve a party for failure to appeal within the time allowed, except as permitted in the Rules for the District of Columbia Court of Appeals.”

NOW, THEREFORE, it is, by the Court,

ORDERED that the above quoted sentence shall be added as the last sentence of Superior Court Rule of Civil Procedure 77 (d)(1) in all future publications of the Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure, so that Rule 77(d)(1) will now read,

“Notice of orders or judgments. Immediately upon the entry of an order or judgment the clerk shall serve a notice of the entry in the manner provided for in Rule 5(b) upon each party who is not in default for failure to appear, and shall make a note in the docket of the service. Any party may in addition serve a notice of such entry in the manner provided in Rule 5(b) for the service of papers. Lack of notice of the entry by the Clerk does not affect the time to appeal or relieve or authorize the Court to relieve a party for failure to appeal within the time allowed, except as permitted in the Rules for the District of Columbia Court of Appeals.”

SO ORDERED.
