ELECTRONIC SERVICE INVITATION

Please do not reply to this email.

Dear [First Name],

[Brian Johnson] with [Johnson, Trent, West & Taylor, LLP] is using CaseFileXpress to eFile and has invited you to accept future service of documents electronically on case number:

[10-14403 Juana Sigaran, et al. v. Mylan, Inc., et al.]

REGISTER TO ACCEPT eSERVICE

What is eService?

eService is the process of sending service to opposing counsel electronically instead of using traditional methods, such as faxing or certified mail. eService is efficient, cost-effective, and the most convenient method for serving opposing counsel. You will receive service copies in a .pdf format rather than instead of paper.

How much does it cost?

There is no cost to register and receive service electronically. Just like FedEx, certified mail, or fax, the sender pays for the service—not the recipient.

How does it work?

You will receive an email notification letting you know that opposing counsel has filed a document with the clerk. The email will have information regarding the case, such as the date and time of the filing, the jurisdiction, cause number, court assignment, name of the serving party, case title, and names of the documents filed.

In addition, any legal staff that you have delegated to file and receive service notifications, will also receive an email notifying them you have been served.

To retrieve the documents filed, you will simply log in to your account and click on "Review Filings / eService". All documents will be in .pdf format and can be saved to your server or computer. No more dependence upon on hard copies.

How do I sign up?

Registration for eService is easy and free of charge. Simply access CaseFileXpress (CFX) at www.casefilexpress.com, click on "Register," and we will guide you through the simple steps to register to file electronically and accept eService.

CFX provides unsurpassed 24/7 customer support, monthly invoicing, free registration with no monthly fees, 24/7 eFiling and eService, onsite or web training, custom reports (including client matter number tracking), and the most user-friendly system available.

Register today to begin accepting eService. Please give us a call toll-free at 877-433-4533 or email at info@cfxpress.com if you have any questions.
