REGISTER OF WILLS COMMENT

The Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure are available at http://www.dccourts.gov/dccourts/superior/civil/civil_actions.jsp.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 2

Rule 2. Matters presented to the Register of Wills.

(a) All ex parte matters and all orders on consent or waiver of notice prepared for the signature of the judge assigned to fiduciary matters shall be presented to the Register of Wills who shall review such matters and make such recommendations to the Court as may be appropriate.

(b) All matters other than a complaint or motion that seek an order of the Court shall be presented in the form of a verified petition, except as otherwise specifically provided.

(c) All accounts shall be typewritten or machine printed. The accounts shall be on forms prescribed by the Court or formats consistent with those forms. The Uniform Fiduciary Accounting Principles and accompanying commentaries and illustrations recommended by the Committee on National Fiduciary Accounting Standards in collaboration with the National Center for State Courts are approved as an elaboration of the requirements of this rule. Reference may be made to them for determination of the adequacy of a particular account. The model account forms attached thereto are the approved forms for purposes of this rule.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 3

Rule 3. Verification of pleadings.

All pleadings filed by a fiduciary in the Probate Division except as otherwise provided by statute shall be verified by the fiduciary before the Register of Wills or an official authorized to administer oaths, substantially in accordance with the following form, unless otherwise specifically prescribed by the Register of Wills.

I, being first duly sworn on oath [OR: I, affirm], depose and say that I have read the foregoing pleadings by me subscribed and that the facts therein stated are true to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

The verification of a corporate fiduciary may be made by an authorized officer of said corporation.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 4

Rule 4. Notice requirements.

(a) Recipients of notice.

Except as otherwise expressly provided by statute or these rules, persons to whom notice must be given in a particular matter include all the parties in a case, interested persons in decedent's estate cases, as prescribed in D.C. Code § 20-101(d) and affected persons in all other cases as the Court shall direct. Notice may be effectuated by sending the petition by first class mail postage prepaid to the prescribed person or persons.

(b) Court may modify notice.

The Court may modify the requirements of notice under these rules when the parties and affected persons are very numerous and it appears that the time, labor, and expense of complying will be disproportionate to the distributive shares of those having an interest in the matter.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 5

Rule 5. Investments by a fiduciary.

(a) Investment standards.

(1) When investing, reinvesting, purchasing, acquiring, exchanging, selling and managing property for the benefit of another, a fiduciary shall act with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing, specifically including, but not by way of limitation, the general economic conditions and the anticipated needs of the trust and its beneficiaries, or the ward or the probate estate and its creditors and interested persons, that a prudent person acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims, to attain the goals of the settlor as determined from the trust instrument or will, or the objectives of the ward as determined by the Court.

(2) Within the limitations of the foregoing and considering individual investments as part of an overall investment strategy, a fiduciary is authorized to acquire every kind of property, real, personal, or mixed, and every kind of investment. In the absence of express provisions to the contrary in any will or trust instrument, a fiduciary may without liability continue to hold property received into a trust or an estate at its inception or subsequently added to it or acquired pursuant to proper authority or previously held by the ward if and as long as the fiduciary, in the exercise of good faith and of reasonable prudence, discretion and intelligence, may consider that retention is in the best interests of the trust or the ward or probate estate or in furtherance of the goals of the settlor or testator as determined from any trust instrument or will or the objectives of the ward as determined by the Court.

(3) In the absence of express provisions to the contrary in any trust instrument or will, a deposit of funds at interest in any bank or other depository (including the trustee) shall be a permissible investment to the extent that such deposit is insured under any present or future law of the United States, is collateralized pursuant to any present or future law of the District of Columbia or the United States, or to such greater extent as the Court may authorize. Nothing in this rule shall be construed as limiting the right of fiduciaries in proper cases to make deposits of moneys in banks, subject, in the case of interest-bearing deposits, to such notice or other conditions respecting withdrawal as may be prescribed by law or governmental regulation affecting such deposits.

(4) Nothing in this rule shall abrogate or restrict the power of the Court in proper cases to direct or permit the fiduciary to deviate from the terms of the trust or will regarding the making or retention of investments.

(5) The provisions of this rule shall apply to all fiduciaries under the supervision of the Court. Terms such as "investments permissible by law for investment of trust funds," "legal investments," "authorized investments," "investments acquired using the judgment and care which persons of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation, but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income as well as the probable safety of their capital," and other words of similar import used in defining the powers of a fiduciary relative to investments, in the absence of other controlling or modifying provisions of a trust instrument or will shall be construed as authorizing any investment permitted, and imposing the standard of prudence required, by the terms of paragraph (1) of this rule.

(6) The term "property" as used in this rule includes life insurance, endowment, and annuity contracts issued by legal reserve companies.

(b) In all cases where a fiduciary is required to obtain Court authority prior to making investments, an order of Court so authorizing investments under this rule shall not constitute Court approval of the particular investments nor shall the fiduciary be relieved of any fiduciary responsibility for having made the investments.

(c) No fiduciary, without prior Court approval, shall purchase for the fiduciary's personal account or for any account in which the fiduciary is personally interested any asset held by the fiduciary, nor shall the fiduciary sell to himself or herself, as fiduciary, any asset in which the fiduciary has any personal or financial interest. Upon a petition by the fiduciary disclosing all pertinent facts and showing that either the trust instrument or will authorizes such a transaction, or that the beneficiary or ward has knowingly consented or that the transaction is in the best interest of the estate, trust, ward or beneficiary and after notice of the petition to all parties and affected persons and a hearing, the Court may approve the transaction.

COMMENT:

Subsection (a) of this rule maintains "the prudent investor" standard as expressed in Johns v. Herbert, 2 App. D.C. 485 (1894) but makes clear that a prudent investor uses a total asset management approach in light of the investment objectives for the beneficiary and allows the Court to permit generally accepted practices of risk allocation embodied in modern portfolio management theory. For further explication of current fiduciary investment practices with respect to trusts, see D.C. Code §§ 28-4701 to 4712.

The District of Columbia Code recognizes that the Court may allow the sale of estate property to a fiduciary by providing under § 21-2068 (Guardianship, Protective Proceedings and Durable Power of Attorney Act of 1986) that such transactions otherwise voidable may be approved by the Court after a hearing with notice to enumerated individuals.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 5.1

Rule 5.1. Privacy requirements.

(1) All parties shall exclude the following personal identification from all filed documents except as provided below.

(A) Social Security numbers and drivers license numbers: . Except in the case of a testamentary writing, Social Security and driver's license numbers are to be excluded from public filings. If a person intends to file any document that includes an individual's social security number, the person shall file the document with the acronym "SSN" placed where the individual's social security number would have been included.

(B) Dates of birth: . Except in the case of a testamentary writing and as otherwise provided in Probate Rules 108(a)(1), 221(a)(4), 231(a)(4) and (b)(1), and 408(b)(1), dates of birth are to be excluded from public filings. If a person intends to file any document that includes an individual's date of birth, the person shall file the document with the acronym "DOB" placed where the individual's date of birth would have been included.

(C) Financial account numbers: . Except in the case of a testamentary writing and as provided in Probate Rules 20(a), 109(e), 114(b), 204(a), 329(a), 330(b), 409(f) and 414(b), financial account numbers are to be excluded from public filings. Probate Form 27, as provided for in the foregoing rules, shall be maintained under seal. Upon motion and for good cause shown, the court may order the form unsealed. Except for Probate Form 27, any document filed that contains a financial account number shall include only the lasts four digits of that number.

(2) A person wishing to file a document containing the unredacted personal identification listed in subparagraphs (A) through (C) of paragraph (1) of this rule may file a motion for leave to file an unredacted document under seal.

(3) The responsibility for redacting this personal identification rests solely with counsel and the interested persons.

COMMENT:

This Rule expresses the Court's concern about access to, and dissemination of, private information in the Court's public records to the detriment of individuals whose privacy is compromised simply because their otherwise private information is contained in court filings. The risk of invasion of privacy is heightened where the Court's public records are made available through the internet. Although the Rule does not expressly prohibit all use of personal identifiers and other private information, such as home addresses, it is the policy of the Court that parties not include home addresses and other private information in any court filings unless it is necessary to the matter being litigated or is otherwise expressly required by statute or other Rules of the Court, such as, for example, Civil Rules 16(a)(2), 10-1(b), and 4(l)(2), made applicable to Probate proceedings by Probate Rule 1(f).

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 6

Rule 6. Life estate; dower.

(a) Allowance for life estate.

Allowance to a healthy tenant for life, unless otherwise adjudged, shall be computed as follows:

(1) For the month in which the valuation date falls, find the applicable federal rate under section 7520 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 by consulting Table 5 of the monthly revenue rulings listing applicable federal rates published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin.

(2) Using the applicable federal rate obtained in subparagraph (a)(1) and the age of the tenant for life, select the correct factor from Table R(1) in IRS Notice 89-60.

(3) Subtract the factor obtained in subparagraph (a)(2) from the number 1 (the resulting factor is the allowance to a tenant for life).

(b) Commutation of dower.

The dower of a healthy person in land sold by judgment of the Court, unless otherwise agreed by the parties or adjudged for good cause shown, shall be equal to one-third (1/3) of the value of that person's life estate in the land, computed in accordance with subsection (a) of this rule. (This subsection is not applicable to estates of persons dying on or after April 26, 2001, the effective date of the Omnibus Trusts and Estates Amendment Act of 2000, abolishing dower.)

(c) For purposes of this rule, the valuation date shall be the first day of the month next preceding the month in which the initial pleading seeking an allowance or commutation is filed.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 6.1

Rule 6.1. Disclaimers required to be filed with the court.

COMMENT:

The requirements of this rule are not intended to address the jurisdictional basis for filing a disclaimer in the District of Columbia Superior Court. Any person filing a disclaimer should assure himself or herself of the jurisdictional basis for filing the disclaimer in the District of Columbia Superior Court. Paragraph (b) is intended to encourage those filing disclaimers to include information that will assist the Register of Wills in processing disclaimers.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 8

Rule 8. Appeals.

(a) Generally.

Any person who is aggrieved by a final order or judgment of the Probate Division of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia and who participated in the determination of that order or judgment may file an appeal therefrom to the District of Columbia Court of Appeals.

(b) Judgment upon fewer than all claims or interested persons or parties.

Upon application of any interested person or party or in the court's discretion, the court may direct the entry of a final judgment as to one or more but fewer than all of the claims or interested persons or parties upon an express determination that there is no just reason for delay and upon an express direction for the entry of such judgment.

(c) When allowed -- Decedents' estates.

Notwithstanding section (b) of this rule, all orders and judgments of the court determining rights of any interested person or party in any proceeding in the administration of the estate of a decedent shall be deemed final with respect to matters provided for in subsections (1) through (6) of this section as follows:

- (1) Order granting or denying probate;
- (2) Order construing the decedent's will;
- (3) Order determining heirs or legatees;
- (4) Order determining title to assets;
- (5) Order determining that property should be sold;
- (6) Order approving a final account.

(d) When allowed -- All other proceedings.

Notwithstanding section (b) of this rule, all orders and judgments of the court determining rights of any interested person or party in any intervention proceeding shall be deemed final with respect to matters provided for in subsections (1) through (8) of this section as follows:

- (1) Order appointing, removing or denying a request to appoint or remove a permanent guardian, permanent conservator, special conservator, trustee or other permanent fiduciary;
- (2) Order granting or limiting the rights, powers or duties of a permanent guardian, permanent conservator, special conservator, trustee or other permanent fiduciary;
- (3) Order approving any account, or granting or denying an exception or objection to any account;
- (4) Order granting or denying compensation;
- (5) Order determining title to assets;
- (6) Order determining that property should be sold;
- (7) Order determining a claim against a protected person or property of a protected person;
- (8) Order granting or denying authority to make gifts.

COMMENT:

This rule recognizes that, in the context of a decedent's estate, an order approving the final account is generally the only order that disposes of all the issues as to all the parties. Examples of probate orders that are not final absent an express determination by the Court include (but are not limited to) orders appointing or removing fiduciaries and orders approving interim accounts, including fees and commissions reflected therein.

If an interested person or party in a decedent's estate has notice of an account or request for compensation and fails to file an exception to such account or request for compensation within the statutory period, such interested person or party lacks standing to appeal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the District of Columbia Court of Appeals decision in Johnson v. Martin, 567 A.2d 1299 (D.C. 1989), provides that even if an interested person or party does not file an exception within the statutory period, such person or party may file an exception when the person or party "discovers, or by reasonable diligence should discover, the injury, its cause in fact, and some evidence of wrongful conduct." Id. at 1302.

The mere filing of an appeal does not suspend the proceedings or stay the ruling, order, judgment or decree that is the subject of the appeal. The Court may enter a separate order pursuant to SCR-PD 9. Murphy v. McCloud, 605 A.2d 202 (D.C. 1994).

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 9

Rule 9. Stay pending reconsideration or appeal.

(a) Stay upon Motion for Reconsideration or appeal.

The court may stay the execution or enforcement of a judgment or order pending the disposition of a motion made pursuant to a Motion for Reconsideration or an appeal brought pursuant to SCR-PD 8 and may prescribe such conditions as are deemed by the court to be necessary to secure the benefit of the judgment or order to the party in whose favor such judgment or order is entered or otherwise as the court may determine.

(b) Power of appellate court not limited.

The provisions of this Rule do not limit any power of an appellate court or of a judge or justice thereof to stay proceedings during the pendency of an appeal or to make any order appropriate to preserve the status quo or the effectiveness of the judgment subsequently to be entered.

(a) Fiduciaries must give undertaking; how amount determined.

In trust estates under the supervision of the Court, where there is not specific statutory provision for the giving of an undertaking, all committees, trustees, guardians and other fiduciaries appointed by the Court, except trust companies as provided in D.C. Code § 26-1333 and national banks as provided in 12 U.S.C. § 92a(f), before entering upon the discharge of the duties as such fiduciary shall execute an undertaking with surety approved by the Court in a penalty equal to the amount of the personal property, the annual income therefrom and the yearly rents to be derived from the real estate of such trust estate, conditioned for the faithful performance of such trust. Should it become necessary to sell real estate of the estate, the fiduciary shall execute such additional undertaking as may be required by the Court before accepting in such fiduciary capacity the proceeds from the sale of real estate.

(b) Persons not acceptable as surety.

No members of the bar in active practice or other officer of the Court will be accepted as surety.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 202

Rule 202. Trustees, conservators, guardians, guardians ad litem, and other fiduciaries.

(a) To report conflicting interest.

Whenever a trustee, conservator, guardian, guardian ad litem, or other fiduciary has occasion to sue or defend in behalf of an infant or incompetent person concerning a matter in which he has a possible conflicting interest, he shall report the facts in writing to the Court so that it may take appropriate action.

(b) Guardians ad litem: Members of bar to be appointed.

Except for special cause shown no person other than a member of the bar of this Court shall be appointed guardian ad litem.

(c) Application for the appointment of a successor, substitute or additional trustee shall be by petition with notice to parties, if any, and affected persons, who shall include only all then serving trustees, present income beneficiaries and then living remaindermen who would receive trust assets if all income beneficiaries had died on the date of filing of the petition raising the matter at issue. The Court may modify the foregoing in accordance with Probate Rule 4(b). A guardian ad litem shall not be required for such an appointment.

(d) Except for good cause shown, only a person residing within the area of the subpoena power of the Court or any bank or trust institution authorized to serve in a fiduciary capacity, or a member of the bar authorized to practice law before this Court, shall be appointed by the Court as conservator, committee, or trustee of another.

(e) No fiduciary appointed by this Court shall, without prior Court approval, remove or maintain outside the District of Columbia any personal assets held in a fiduciary capacity, except securities held in book entry form or in the custody of an institution mentioned in Probate Rule 204(d)(4).

(f) A fiduciary appointed by this Court who is or becomes a nonresident of the District of Columbia or is continuously absent therefrom for more than sixty days, shall within ten days after qualifying as fiduciary or becoming such nonresident or absentee, file with the Register of Wills a like power of attorney to that provided by D.C. Code § 20-303(b)(7). Failure to file the power of attorney within the time provided shall be cause for removal of the fiduciary from office.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 203

Rule 203. Court sales of real and personal property.

(a) Sale of real property.

Unless otherwise herein provided, a sale of real estate or any interest in land under an order of this Court shall be governed by the provisions of Title 28, Section 2001, U.S. Code in the same manner as if such provisions were, by the terms thereof, applicable to proceedings in this Court.

(b) Public sale: Procedure.

Except when the order of Court otherwise provides, the officer making a public sale shall proceed in the manner following:

(1) Publication.

The officer shall give previous notice of the sale by publication once a week for 4 weeks in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the District of Columbia. The notice shall describe the property substantially as in the order and shall state the time, place, manner and terms of sale and the deposit required.

(2) Terms of sale.

The terms shall be one-third of the purchase money in cash and the balance in two equal installments, payable on or before one and 2 years from date of settlement of sale, represented by the promissory notes of the purchaser with interest at 6 percent per annum, payable semi-annually, secured by deed of trust on the property, or all cash at the option of the purchaser.

(3) Place; presence of officer.

The sale shall be held upon the premises, and the officer making the sale shall be present and personally receive the deposit. If there be more than one officer, the presence of one will be sufficient.

(4) Report; ratification.

A verified report of the sale shall be promptly made to the Court. Thereupon on motion and notice the Court may, in its discretion, ratify the same with or without further notice. If the sale be ratified, settlement shall be made and the real estate conveyed by proper deed.

(5) Form of order of sale.

The order of sale shall not contain detailed directions as to the manner of proceeding, but shall do so only by reference to this rule.

(6) Compensation of auctioneer.

The compensation of the auctioneer shall be one and one-half percent of the first $ 10,000.00, plus three-eighths of one percent of any amount over $ 10,000.00 of the value of the equity in the property being sold. In the event that the property is unencumbered by indebtedness, the auctioneer's compensation shall be computed and paid at the same rate upon the entire sales price. In no case shall the auctioneer's compensation be less than thirty-five ($ 35.00) dollars unless the property is withdrawn after being offered for sale, in which event the auctioneer's compensation shall be twenty-five ($ 25.00) dollars.

(c) Private sale: Procedure.

(1) Order for sale.

A private sale may be ordered after hearing of which notice to all parties and affected persons is given by publication or otherwise as the Court may direct, if the Court finds the best interests of the estate will be conserved thereby.

(2) Appraisers.

Before confirmation of a private sale the Court shall appoint 3 disinterested persons to appraise the property, or different groups of 3 appraisers each to appraise properties of different classes or situated in different locations. Such appraisers are to be appointed from the list maintained by the Register of Wills pursuant to Probate Rule 113.

(3) Minimum sale price.

A private sale shall not be confirmed at less than two-thirds of the appraised value.

(4) Order nisi increased offer; confirmation.

At least 10 days before confirmation of a private sale the terms thereof shall be published in such newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the District of Columbia as the Court may direct, and the sale shall not then be confirmed if a bona fide offer has been made, under such conditions as the Court may prescribe, which guarantees at least a ten percent net increase over the price specified in such published offer.

(d) Account; distribution of proceeds.

Except in an old conservatorship proceeding (one not governed by D.C. Code § 21-2001 et seq.), promptly after the settlement of a private or public sale made under this rule a full and detailed account shall be filed and presented to the Court and the proceeds distributed as the Court has directed or may direct.

(e) Compensation to officer making sale.

The compensation of the trustee or officer making a sale hereunder shall be five (5) percent on the first $ 3,000.00, plus two and one-half percent on the next $ 10,000.00, plus 1 percent on any amount in excess of $ 13,000.00 of the value of the equity in the property being sold. In the event that the property is unencumbered by indebtedness, the compensation of the trustee or officer making the sale shall be computed and paid at the same rate upon the entire sales price. The compensation may be increased or reduced by the Court for special cause shown in writing.

(f) Sale of personal property.

Unless otherwise herein provided, a sale of personal property under an order of this Court shall be governed by Title 28, Section 2004, U.S. Code, in the same manner as if such provisions were, by the terms thereof, applicable to proceedings in this Court. The officer making sale shall account and distribute as provided by subsection (d) hereof. The officer shall be allowed such compensation and expenses as the Court may fix.

A waiver signed by one acting in such capacity must be accompanied by a certified copy of a Court appointment, if any, or, if none, by a certified statement (i) indicating such person's status, (ii) setting forth the nature and the date of the instrument creating such fiduciary relationship and the relevant portions thereof, and (iii) representing that the instrument is still in full force and effect.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 206

Rule 206. Register of Wills costs for accounts.

The Register of Wills shall be paid a fee for all audits and examinations made pursuant to this rule according to the fee schedules hereinafter set forth, and in every such case the fee prescribed herein shall be deemed a reasonable fee for the services rendered by the Register of Wills.

(a) Audits and examinations under Probate Rule 204.

The fee to be collected by the Register of Wills for audit and examination of an account pursuant to subsection (d) of Probate Rule 204 shall be assessed on the basis of the value of the assets at the following rates:

Value of Assets	Costs
Less than $ 2,500	None

(b) Court costs attributable to real estate in the District of Columbia.

Additional court costs in the amount of $ 25 shall be assessed in all accounts wherein real property or properties in the District of Columbia, of whatever value, are carried as an asset for the entire period of the account.

(c) Computation of court costs.

For the purposes of determining costs under subsection (a) of this rule, the value of the assets shall include:

(1) The initial gross principal value of the assets; and

(2) The gross value of any increase in the principal value of any asset realized upon disposition of that asset (other than upon final distribution to a ward who has been restored to competency, or distribution to a successor fiduciary).

(d) Time of payment.

The costs shall be collected by the Register of Wills at the filing of the first account by the first appointed fiduciary. The fee for costs shall be a one-time charge based on the assets, excluding real estate, but if there are subsequently acquired assets that increase the value of the estate into a higher bracket, at that time there will be an additional charge on the difference between the fee previously paid and the fee at the higher bracket, and providing that if there is a real estate that is excluded, there will be an additional charge as provided in subsection (b) of this rule.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 207

Rule 207. Irregularity or default; sanctions.

(a) Irregularity.

Failure of a fiduciary to obtain prior Court authority for expenditures, other than those provided by statute and court costs, shall constitute an irregularity in the administration of the estate and such expenditures shall be disallowed as a charge to the estate upon any accounting except for good cause shown.

(b) Failure to account.

If an appraisal, inventory or account is not filed within the prescribed time or authorized extension of time, such failure shall constitute a default by the fiduciary.

(c) Action by Court.

Whenever the Register of Wills finds an irregularity or default in the administration of a proceeding under these rules, including but not limited to the matters specified in subsections (a) and (b) above, or that there is an insufficiency in the amount or security of an undertaking, the Register of Wills shall promptly notify the fiduciary responsible that unless the irregularity or default is corrected forthwith, the fiduciary so notified may be removed from office. If the irregularity or default is not remedied, the Register of Wills shall report it to the Court which, after notice to the person and a hearing, shall either remove the fiduciary and appoint a successor or excuse the irregularity or default or take other appropriate action.

(1) In extraordinary cases, the Court, either sua sponte or at the request of the Register of Wills, may order a summary hearing without giving the fiduciary prior notice to correct an irregularity or default. After such a hearing, the Court may take any appropriate action including excusing the irregularity or default.

(2) Whenever an irregularity or default in the administration of an estate exists, but no party or affected person appears to be materially and adversely affected, the Register of Wills may request the Court to close the case unless a party or affected person shows cause why the Court should take further action.

(3) Notice of any hearing held hereunder shall be sent by first class mail to the address of record of the fiduciary, the surety, counsel of record, each party and affected person and each creditor with a docketed claim.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 208

Rule 208. Proceedings in contested cases.

(a) Commencement of action.

An action to contest a petition for the appointment of a guardian of a minor's estate, custodian of a minor, conservator, committee or trustee or to remove a guardian of a minor's estate, conservator, committee or trustee who has been appointed, to ratify and confirm a contract for the sale of a minor's interest in real estate (pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-146), to construe a will after approval of the personal representative's final account, for instructions, to construe, modify, reform or terminate a trust, for instruction or to construe the Uniform Principal and Income Act, to reform an instrument to comply with the statutory rule against perpetuities under D.C. Code § 19-903 or to declare one dead based on a presumption of death (D.C. Code § 14-701), or any other complaint, regarding the guardian of a minor's estate, custodian of a minor, conservator, committee or trustee may be commenced by any party in interest by filing a verified complaint with the Register of Wills. Except as otherwise provided, the procedure in such actions, including service of process, shall be governed by the Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure, as amended.

(b) Summons.

The Register of Wills shall issue a summons upon the request of the plaintiff in the action. In an action brought pursuant to this Rule to contest a petition for the appointment of, or to remove, a guardian of a minor's estate, custodian of a minor, conservator, committee or trustee, to construe a will after approval of the personal representative's final account, for instructions, or to construe or reform a trust, or to declare one dead based on a presumption of death, the summons shall be directed to all interested persons and all indispensable parties under Civil Rule 19. In any other action against the estate, the summons shall be directed only to the fiduciary thereof and may be directed to others. In such actions against an estate wherein the interested persons are not named parties, the fiduciary thereof shall notify the interested persons of the pendency of the actions and of the right to intervene. The notice shall be provided by first class mail within 20 days of the service of the action; and the fiduciary shall file a certificate reflecting service of the notice at the time of filing a response.

(c) Discovery.

When a complaint is filed pursuant to this Rule, the parties may proceed with discovery pursuant to Civil Rules 26 through 37.

(d) Scheduling and settlement conference.

Within 60 days after a complaint has been filed, the Court shall conduct an initial scheduling and settlement conference pursuant to Civil Rule 16(b).

(e) Other contested matters.

All other contested matters which are not initiated by complaint, including objection to reports or petitions filed with the Court shall be treated as motions pursuant to Civil Rule 12-1 (d) through (n). The Court may permit discovery under this paragraph upon a showing of good cause.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 209

Rule 209. Guardian ad litem.

(a) Appointment.

The Court may, on its own motion or on request of a guardian of a minor's estate, custodian of a minor, conservator, committee or trustee, or other interested person, appoint a guardian ad litem at any stage of a proceeding to represent the interest of any of the following persons, if the Court determines that representation of the interest otherwise would be inadequate:

- (1) A minor.
 - (2) An incapacitated person.
 - (3) An unborn person.
 - (4) An unascertained person.
 - (5) A person whose identity or address is unknown.
 - (6) A designated class of persons who are not ascertained or are not in being.
- (b) Representation of several persons or interests.

If not precluded by a conflict of interest, a guardian ad litem may be appointed to represent several persons or interests.

(c) Expenses.

The reasonable expenses of the guardian ad litem, including compensation determined pursuant to SCR-Probate 224 shall be determined by the Court and paid as the Court orders, either out of the property of the estate involved or by the petitioner or from such other source as the Court orders.

COMMENT:

SCR-Civil 17(c) provides that a representative, next friend, or guardian ad litem appointed by the Court, may sue or defend on behalf of an infant or incompetent person. This Rule supplements 17(c) and recognizes the inherent power of the Court, as an incident of its jurisdiction, to appoint guardians ad litem to represent the interests of all those whose representation would otherwise be inadequate, including the interests of unascertained and unborn beneficiaries and unknown persons. See Hatch v. Riggs National Bank, 124 U.S. App. D.C. 105, 111-112, 361 F. 2d 559 (1966). Note that SCR-Probate 202(c) provides that a guardian ad litem shall not be required for the appointment of a successor, substitute or additional trustee.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 210

Rule 210. Joinder and representation of persons interested in estates.

(a) Applicability.

The provisions of this Rule shall apply in any proceeding in which all persons interested in the estate are required to be served with process. For the purposes of this Rule, the term "an interest in the estate" includes both interests in income and interests in principal.

(b) Representation of class interests.

(1) Where an interest in the estate has been limited as follows, it shall not be necessary to serve process on any other person than as herein provided:

(A) In any contingency to the persons who shall compose a certain class upon the happening of a future event, the persons in being who would constitute the class if such event had happened immediately before the commencement of the proceeding.

(B) To a person who is a party to the proceeding and the same interest has been further limited upon the happening of a future event to a class of persons described in terms of their relationship to such party, the party to the proceeding.

(C) To unborn or unascertained persons, none of such persons, but if it appears that there is no person in being or unascertained, having the same interest, the Court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent or protect the persons who eventually may become entitled to the interest.

(2) Where a party to the proceeding has a power of appointment, it shall not be necessary to serve the potential appointees and if it is a general power of appointment it shall not be necessary to serve the takers in default of the exercise thereof.

(c) Representation of contingent interest.

Where an interest in the estate has been limited to a person who is a party to the proceeding and the same interest has been further limited upon the happening of a future event to any other person, it shall not be necessary to serve such other person.

(d) Representation of persons under a disability.

If the instrument expressly so provides, where a party to the proceeding has the same interest as a person under a disability, it shall not be necessary to serve the person under a disability.

(e) The decree or order entered in any such proceeding shall be binding and conclusive on all persons upon whom service of process is not required.

(f) In any proceeding in which service of process upon persons interested in the estate may be dispensed with, the complaint shall set forth the nature of the interests of such persons and the basis upon which service of process may be dispensed with, and state whether the fiduciary or any other person has discretion to affect the present or future beneficial enjoyment of the estate and, if so, set forth the discretion possessed and, if exercised, the manner in which it has been exercised. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Rule and any provision of the instrument to the contrary, if the Court finds that the representation of a person's interest is or may be inadequate, it may require that that person be served or that a guardian ad litem be appointed pursuant to SCR-Probate 210.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 211

Rule 211. Rule to show cause for recovery of possession of property of the estate.

(a) Petition For Rule To Show Cause.

When it is believed that any person is in possession of assets, papers, data or information of or about an estate subject to the 200 Series of the Probate Rules and is wrongfully withholding the same, a Petition may be filed for a Rule to Show Cause, directing such person to appear and show cause why such person should not disclose all of the assets, papers, data and information in such person's possession belonging to the estate and the location of the same and why such person should not be required by the Court to turn over all of the said assets, papers, data and other information to the representative of the estate, provide access to property or take such other action as ordered by the Court.

(b) Content of the Petition.

In addition to any other information required to be submitted to the Court under this Rule, the Petition shall set forth with particularity the following facts, points, and authorities: (1) a concise description of the assets, papers, data, or other information concerning the estate that is alleged to be wrongfully withheld by the person named in the petition; (2) the name, address, telephone number and any other pertinent identifying information about the individual whose actions are to be subject to the order to show cause; (3) a statement of the jurisdiction of the Superior Court over the subject matter and such person; (4) the facts and law that would establish the right of the estate to demand production of the subject asset, paper, data or other information (including but not limited to its alleged connection to the assets of the estate or its relevance to the administration of the estate); (5) a concise demand for relief, such as production of a particular asset or data, reimbursement of monies to the estate, or other specific relief; and (6) any other information that the petitioner determines to be relevant to the Court's decision to issue the order to show cause or reason(s) if any why any of the foregoing information is not supplied.

(c) Good faith effort -- Certification of petitioner.

The Petition for Rule to Show Cause shall contain the petitioner's certificate that despite a good faith effort the petitioner has been unable to obtain the assets, papers, data and information sought. The certification shall set forth specific facts describing the good faith effort.

(d) Who may petition the Court.

The representative of the estate (e.g., guardian of a minor's estate, custodian of a minor, conservator or trustee) may file a petition hereunder. Any interested person may also file a petition hereunder against the representative and such petition shall suffice as an "application" for relief, as permitted in D.C. Code § 20-107.

(e) Form of Order.

The Court may grant the Petition For Rule To Show Cause without waiting for any response to the Petition by executing an Order For Rule To Show Cause substantially in the following form:

In Re: No.

NOTICE

If your claim has been disallowed in whole or in part, with or without prejudice, the claim will be barred to the extent of its disallowance unless you file a Petition For Payment From Trust not later than 60 days after the mailing of this notice or such shorter period as might be allowed by the applicable statute of limitations.

(c) If the trustee takes no action on the claim, or having allowed the claim fails to pay it within a reasonable time after allowing it, the claimant may file a Petition For Payment From Trust. The failure of the trustee to respond shall in no way suspend the operation of any statute of limitations.

(d) Unless otherwise provided by the terms of the trust, the property of the trust may not be subjected to the reach of the personal representative, or if none by claimants, unless it is required for the purpose of paying the charges set forth in *D.C. (e) Upon a proper showing by the personal representative of the settlor's estate, or if none the claimant, that the residuary probate estate is insufficient to meet all or a part of the charges set forth in D.C. Code § 19-1305.05(a)(3) and, that the property of the trust must be acquired to pay all or a part of said charges, the court may order the trustee to pay from the trust to the personal representative, or if none to the claimant, so much as may be necessary to pay all or a part of said charges, provided all persons whose interest in the trust would be affected by the sought payment shall have filed with the court their consents or their representative's consents to the payment.

(f) In the absence of consents the personal representative or claimant may file a Petition For Payment From Trust and for a determination of the insufficiency of the probate residuary estate to honor the claim. If the trustee disputes the validity of the claim, as distinguished from the issue of the adequacy of the residuary estate to pay it, the petitioner may convert the Petition For Payment From Trust into a complaint, provided the petitioner pays the complaint filing fee. The Court then may set a status conference and enter such other orders therein pertaining to interested persons and indispensable parties as are just in accordance with SCR-PD 208.

PART II
Conservators (Pre 1989 Act) and Guardians of Minors.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 221

Rule 221. Appointment of guardian.

(a) Petition.

A petition for the appointment of a guardian for an infant or infants shall be typewritten, double spaced, and verified by the petitioner. The petition shall set forth:

- (1) The residence, citizenship and freedom from legal disability of the proposed guardian;
- (2) The relationship of the proposed guardian to each infant;
- (3) By what right the petitioner makes application, and, if the application is not for petitioner's appointment, by what right the proposed guardian may be appointed;
- (4) The name, residence and date of birth of each infant;
- (5) The names and residence(s) of the parents of each infant and the date of death of any deceased parent;
- (6) The nature, location and estimated value of the real and personal property to which the infant is entitled, and the annual rental value of any such real property.

(b) Presence and selection.

Unless the infant's presence is excused for sufficient cause, the infant shall be present at Court when the guardian is appointed, and, if over 14 years of age, shall be entitled to select the proposed guardian.

(c) Written consents of parents, if non-petitioning party, shall be filed with petition for the appointment of a guardian. If unavailable, a summons and copy of the petition shall be served personally on the parent if whereabouts known, in accordance with Civil Rule 4. Otherwise notice by publication may be substituted for personal service in the manner authorized by applicable statute upon the filing of an affidavit evidencing diligent effort to ascertain the parent's whereabouts. The Court, for good cause shown upon the filing of a petition and affidavit, may provide for a different method of giving of notice or waive notice.

(d) The guardian shall file a bond pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-115 with the Court at the time of the filing of the petition for the appointment of guardian.

(e) Order appointing guardian.

The order of appointment shall state the date of birth of the infant, and, if the infant is over 14 years of age, shall state that the infant was present and selected the guardian, or that such presence was excused.

(f) Accounts.

A guardian shall not dispose of the infant's property or encumber it without prior order of the Court. Vouchers shall be obtained for all disbursements, when practicable, and accurate records of all receipts and disbursements shall be maintained for each infant.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 222

Rule 222. Expenditures and sales by a guardian of a minor.

(a) Expenditures and sales.

All expenditures by a guardian from a minor's estate shall be made only upon prior authorization of the Court, pursuant to a petition on SCR-PD Form 1 or a format substantially consistent with that form.

(b) Sale of property.

A guardian shall not sell or otherwise dispose of estate property or encumber it without prior order of Court.

(c) Expenditures and sales for investment.

(1) All expenditures or sales for investment, except those pursuant to a plan or program approved pursuant to paragraph (2) of this rule, shall be made with prior Court order obtained upon a petition on SCR-PD Form 2, or a format substantially consistent with that form.

(2) A guardian may apply for approval by the Court of an investment plan or program in accordance with Probate Rule 5 which, if approved by the Court, may be carried out without the necessity of Court approval of specific transactions, provided the transaction complies with the approved plan or program; Probate Rule 203 shall not apply. The petition shall be on SCR-PD Form 3, or a format substantially consistent with that form.

(d) Failure to comply.

Failure to comply with the provisions of this rule constitutes an irregularity or default. Such failure may result in personal liability and/or removal from office.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 223

Rule 223. Expenditures and sales.

(a) Expenditures.

All expenditures from an estate by a conservator, committee or guardian, except court costs and those provided by statute, shall be made only upon prior authorization of the Court.

(b) Sale of property.

A conservator, committee or guardian shall not sell or otherwise dispose of estate property or encumber it without prior order of Court.

(c) Expenditures and sales for investment.

A fiduciary who is subject to the supervision of this Court shall obtain a Court order for all expenditures and sales for investment; however, such a fiduciary may apply for approval by the Court of an investment plan or program in accordance with Probate Rule 5 which, if approved by the Court, may be carried out without the necessity of Court approval of specific transactions; provided the same comply with the approved plan or program, and Probate Rule 203(f) shall not apply.

(d) Failure to comply.

Failure to comply with the provisions of this rule constitutes an irregularity or default. Such failure may result in personal liability and/or removal from office.

COMMENT:

A petition for approval of proposed expenditures or for approval of a proposed sale or other disposition of estate property may be submitted to the Court at any time and may request authority continuing beyond a specific accounting or annual period.

Reference should be made to Probate Rule 5 for guidance on the reinvestment of the proceeds of sale of property. Excluding investment in federally insured bank accounts and United States Treasury obligations, a Court order should be obtained to authorize such reinvestment if the proceeds are subject to Court supervision and such investment is not authorized by the terms of the governing instrument or by statute.

Reference should be made to Probate Rule 207 for the consequences of any failure to secure prior Court authorization for any expenditures of funds, sale of property or the reinvestment of funds, sale of property or the reinvestment of property.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 224

Rule 224. Duties and compensation of a guardian ad litem in conservatorship proceedings.

(a) Appointment.

When the Court in its discretion appoints a guardian ad litem in a conservatorship proceeding, no person, other than an active member of the District of Columbia Bar, shall be so appointed except for good cause shown.

(b) Duties.

A guardian ad litem shall appear and represent the best interests of the proposed ward and shall answer allegations set forth in the petition by filing a written report with recommendations not less than seventy-two (72) hours prior to the hearing date and shall serve a copy on the petitioner. The guardian ad litem should compile information sufficient to support the conclusions reached in the written report. The guardian ad litem shall:

(1) Investigate the allegations of the petition.

(2) Interview the proposed ward on at least one occasion, if feasible and appropriate. During the course of the interview the guardian shall ascertain, if possible, the views of the proposed ward toward a conservatorship over the ward's person and estate.

(3) Interview such other person or persons including health care providers as may be necessary in the formulation of the report with respect to the necessity for a conservatorship and who should be appointed.

(4) Prepare a written report which shall make recommendations as to whether the petition should be granted, including when applicable, who should be appointed to serve as a conservator and the amount of bond required, if relevant.

(5) Attend the hearing for the appointment of a conservator.

(c) Expansion or limitation of duties.

Nothing in this rule shall preclude the Court from expanding or limiting the duties of the guardian ad litem in any proceeding as may be appropriate.

(d) Termination of appointment.

The guardian ad litem shall serve until disposition by the Court of the petition for appointment of a conservator at which time the guardian shall automatically be discharged, unless discharged by prior Court order. Nothing in this rule, however, shall preclude the Court from considering at an appropriate time an application for fees and expenses of the guardian for services rendered upon proper application to the Court pursuant to subsection (f) of this rule.

(e) Reappointment of guardian ad litem.

As circumstances warrant, the Court may reappoint the guardian ad litem or appoint another member of the Bar to serve as guardian ad litem for a specified purpose at any time during the administration of the conservatorship.

(f) Compensation.

(1) Petition.

Allowance by the Court of compensation to a guardian ad litem shall be made only upon petition supported by a detailed statement of services describing the work undertaken in performing the duties prescribed under subsection (b) of this rule and containing a certification that the written report was filed not less than seventy-two (72) hours prior to the hearing or if not so filed, an explanation for late filing.

(2) Notice.

When a claim is made by a guardian ad litem against any estate, notice need be given only to the conservator unless the Court directs that notice be given to others. When a claim is against a particular party to the suit, notice shall be given to the conservator and to that party and that party's attorney and to such affected persons as the Court may determine. Persons entitled to notice shall have twenty (20) days from the date of mailing of said notice in which to file objections with the Court.

COMMENT:

The appointment of a guardian ad litem under this rule is not intended to preclude the retention by the proposed ward of independent counsel to oppose the petition for conservatorship.

Performance of excessive service is not looked upon with favor. However, if special circumstances exist, such as inadequate records or apparent conflict of interest, the guardian ad litem may consider ascertaining the following:

- (a) Verification of names and addresses of heirs at law and next of kin;
- (b) Names, addresses, and telephone numbers of physicians involved in the care and treatment of the proposed ward, including references to substantive medical and psychological reports and tests, including dates of examination;
- (c) Description of the information obtained from interviews with persons having knowledge of the proposed ward and any other person of importance to the proposed ward, including name, address and telephone number of persons interviewed, the date of the interview, and a summary of the information obtained.

The petition for compensation should ordinarily be filed within sixty (60) days after entry of the order granting or denying appointment of a conservator or disposing of the matter at issue.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 225

Rule 225. Compensation of conservators and guardians of minors.

(a) Compensation to a conservator or guardian for ordinary services.

Compensation to a conservator or guardian for ordinary services shall be by commission which shall not exceed 5% of amounts disbursed from the estate. Ordinary services shall be those normally performed by a fiduciary in administering such an estate and shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

- (1) Qualification as the fiduciary;
- (2) Collection of the ward's assets and income;
- (3) Payment of the ward's debts and costs of maintenance, as authorized or ratified by the Court;
- (4) General supervision of the ward's investments and policy relating thereto, including safekeeping; and
- (5) Preparation and filing of all inventories, accounts, and reports to the Court.

(b) Time and method for claiming compensation for ordinary services.

A claim for commission for ordinary services may only be made in an annual account and, except as otherwise provided in these rules, no statement of services is required. The amount or percentage of commission claimed need only be reflected in the account itself.

(c) Compensation to fiduciary for extraordinary services.

At the time of filing an annual account or at any other time upon the showing of good cause, a conservator or guardian may petition the Court for compensation for extraordinary services rendered. Extraordinary services shall be in addition to those services set forth in subsection (a). The petition shall include the following:

- (1) Statement of jurisdiction and controlling Court rule;
- (2) Statement of services rendered sufficiently complete on its face to establish that the requested payment is reasonable and, as appropriate, that the services are in fact extraordinary;
- (3) The time devoted thereto, and the normal hourly rate of the fiduciary, if any;
- (4) Evidence of the necessity or purpose of the services;
- (5) Results achieved, including the benefit to the estate or ward, if any;
- (6) Statement of all prior allowances from the estate to the claimant or other fiduciary or counsel, to the extent known;
- (7) The ability of the estate to meet future needs of the ward and to compensate fairly the fiduciary, and;
- (8) Statement that notice in accordance with Probate Rule 225(f) has been given and to whom given.

(d) Turnover commission.

A turnover commission may be claimed in a fiduciary's final account not exceeding five percent of the net assets to be turned over to the successor fiduciary or to the former ward, as the case may be. A turnover commission is in addition to the commission for ordinary services based on disbursements actually made during the accounting period. As a general rule, no statement of services is required in support of a claim for a turnover commission. The amount and percentage claimed need only be reflected in the final account. The exceptions to this general rule are as follows:

(1) The fiduciary's death, resignation or incapacity.

If services by the fiduciary are terminated by the fiduciary's death, resignation, or incapacity, a statement of services shall be filed in support of the turnover commission claimed. That statement shall indicate what has been done by the fiduciary, what remains to be done by the successor fiduciary and such other information as would justify the commission claimed.

(2) The ward's death, restoration to competency or attainment of majority.

(g) Reference to Register of Wills of petition for compensation for extraordinary services or for attorney fees.

All petitions for compensation to a fiduciary for extraordinary services and attorney's fees shall be referred to the Register of Wills for appropriate recommendations.

(h) Discretion reserved to Court.

The Court may, at any time, require a statement of services or any additional verified documentation in determining an appropriate commission in any particular case.

(i) Objections to petition for compensation.

Within twenty (20) days of mailing of notice, parties and affected persons may file with the Register a written objection to the petition for compensation for extraordinary services by the fiduciary or for attorney's fees. The written objection shall include specific statements of the grounds for contesting the petition and shall be mailed to the fiduciary and the fiduciary's attorney. If a written objection is not filed within the prescribed time, the Court may treat the petition as conceded. A party or affected person may specifically request an oral hearing by endorsing at the bottom of the objection, above the signature, "Oral Hearing Requested"; but the Court, in its discretion, may decide the matter without a hearing.

COMMENT:

No compensation shall be awarded for supervision of a ward's person.

Generally, the preparation and filing of routine tax returns and accountings are considered to be ordinary services. If the services involved were in whole or in part extraordinary, compensation for such services may be claimed by petition pursuant to subsection (c) of this rule. If the fiduciary retains the services of a tax preparer, payment of the tax preparer's fee may be made subject to the Probate Rule 223 requirement that expenditures be made only upon prior authorization of the Court. (Amended, Oct. 22, 1996, eff. Feb. 1, 1997.)

The Court will be cautious in awarding turnover commissions claimed under subsection (d)(1) of this rule, by reason of the death, resignation or incapacity of a fiduciary. The Court will take into account the fact that the ward's funds will be disbursed again and will reserve a sufficient portion of the commission as is likely, under the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to compensate the successor fiduciary fairly.

With respect to compensation for extraordinary services under subsection (c) of this rule, the amount of commission for ordinary services will be taken into account, but not be the sole determining factor.

Conservators and guardians serve as officers of the Court. There can be no assurance in any given case that a fiduciary will receive compensation or commissions which the fiduciary considers adequate.

Payments for attorney fees under subsection (e) of this Rule are independent of the fiduciary's commission for ordinary and extraordinary services and are designed to compensate the attorney for legal services consistent with the value of the services rendered and ability of the estate to pay. The fact that the fiduciary is an attorney will not preclude the fiduciary from petitioning for attorney fees for legal services rendered.

PART III
Custodianship (UTMA).

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 231

Rule 231. Custodian of minors.

(a) Petition for successor custodian.

A petition for the appointment of a successor custodian pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-318(d) shall be typewritten, double-spaced, and verified by the petitioners. The petition shall set forth:

(1) The residence, citizenship and freedom from legal disability of the proposed successor custodian;

(2) The relationship of the proposed successor custodian to the minor;

(3) By what right the petitioner makes application, and, if the application is not for petitioners appointment, by what right the proposed successor custodian may be appointed;

(4) The name, residence and date of birth of the minor;

(5) The names and residence(s) of the parents of the minor and the date of death of any deceased parent;

(b) Other transfers by a fiduciary.

A petition by a trustee for an irrevocable transfer in excess of $ 10,000 in value to a minor pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-306 shall be typewritten, double-spaced, and verified by the petitioner. The Petition shall set forth:

(1) The name, residence and date of birth of the minor for whom authority to distribute is sought, as well as the basis for the minor's entitlement to share in the trust;

(2) The nature, location and estimated value of the trust assets to be distributed to the minor;

(3) Facts to show that the transfer is in the best interests of the minor;

(4) Facts to show that the transfer is not prohibited by or inconsistent with the trust agreement, or other governing instrument;

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 302

Rule 302. Pleadings and petitions.

(a) Forms of pleadings and petitions.

All proceedings (except foreign conservatorships) shall be initiated by the filing of a petition. Application to the Court for an order in any pending proceeding shall be by verified petition served on the parties and those entitled to notice in accordance with the statute and these Rules. All petitions shall set forth the relief requested and contain a brief statement of the petitioner's entitlement to that relief. A proposed order shall accompany all petitions except the petition that initiated the proceeding. Motions in accordance with SCR-Civil 12 shall not be required except as specifically required by these Rules or as the Court may direct.

(b) Service.

Every pleading required by statute or rules to be served on parties, those entitled to participate and those who filed an effective request for notice shall contain a certificate of service listing the names of those persons served and the date of service.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 303

Rule 303. Parties and petition for permission to participate.

(a) Parties.

Parties to the proceeding shall include the subject of the proceeding, any guardian or conservator, the person filing a petition to initiate an intervention proceeding and a creditor filing a petition to determine a claim.

(b) Petition for permission to participate.

Any person other than a party who wishes to participate in a proceeding pursuant to D.C. Code §§ 21-2041(i) or 21-2054(f), shall file and serve on all parties a petition (Form I-A) and a proposed order (Form I-B) for permission to participate no later than 5 days prior to any hearing. For good cause shown the Court may consider a petition for permission to participate filed after the foregoing deadline. A petition for permission to participate shall contain a statement as to how the best interests of the subject of the proceeding will be served by the person's participation.

(c) Designation of party status.

At the initial hearing or any time thereafter the Court may confer the status of party on any participant it deems appropriate.

(d) Rights of parties.

A party shall have the rights conferred by D.C. Code § 21-2031(e) and the rules of the Civil Division of this Court to the extent applicable in the Probate Division.

(e) Termination of party status.

A person, other than the subject of the proceeding, who files a petition to initiate an intervention proceeding, shall cease to be a party upon the appointment of a conservator or guardian or upon entry of a protective order or the dismissal of the petition, except for fee petitions related to the hearing, unless the petitioner requests the Court for continuation of party status. A creditor shall cease to be a party upon final disposition of the claim.

(f) Continuation of party status.

The Court, in the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order entered pursuant to D.C. Code §§ 21-2044, 2055 or 2056, shall specify those persons who shall thereafter continue as parties and those persons who shall thereafter continue as participants.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 304

Rule 304. Request by interested person for notice.

(a) Request for notice.

Any interested person who desires to be notified of any petition, motion, pleading, order or other paper filed in any proceeding under the Guardianship Act of 1986 may, upon payment of the required fee, file with the clerk and serve on all parties a request for notice (Form I-C). Upon the filing of a request pursuant to this Rule, the clerk shall mail a copy of the request to any appointed guardian and conservator.

(b) Request effective upon filing.

A request filed and served pursuant to this Rule shall be deemed effective upon filing unless, upon motion made by a party within 10 days of the service of the request, or sua sponte, the Court orders the request stricken for lack of sufficient interest.

(c) Notice of orders and other papers filed.

After the filing of a request for notice, the clerk shall cause copies of all orders thereafter entered by the Court in an intervention proceeding to be served upon the person requesting notice. Once served with a copy of the request for notice, each party to an intervention proceeding shall serve copies of all subsequently filed petitions, motions, pleadings, and proposed orders upon the requestor.

(d) Duration of request.

An effective request will remain in effect for three years or the duration of the proceeding, whichever is shorter, unless revoked by the requestor. A request for notice may be renewed by refiling in accordance with this Rule.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 305

Rule 305. Counsel for the subject of an intervention proceeding.

(a) Duties of counsel.

Upon being retained by or appointed to represent the subject of an intervention proceeding, counsel shall:

(1) Ascertain whether the subject of the proceeding has received notice in accordance with D.C. Code §§ 21-2031, 21-2042 or 21-2053, as appropriate. An individual alleged to be incapacitated shall be present at the hearing unless good cause is shown for the absence.

(2) File a notice of appearance (Form I-D) in accordance with the provisions of SCR-PD 321(d) or 341(c), as appropriate.

(3) Conduct personal interviews with the subject of the proceeding or supervise the conduct of such interviews by another attorney. Unless by virtue of a language barrier or physical incapacity, the services of a translator or communicator are required, all interviews shall be conducted in private.

(4) Determine whether appointment of a guardian ad litem should be sought. If counsel determines that the subject of the proceeding cannot determine his or her own legitimate interests and has no guardian, counsel may apply for appointment of a guardian ad litem.

(5) Explain fully the nature of the proceeding for which the petition was filed and provide all information required pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-2033(b)(2).

(6) Represent the subject at any hearing pursuant to D.C. Code §§ 21-2041(h) or 21-2054(e). To the maximum extent possible the subject of the proceeding shall remain responsible for determining his or her legitimate interest. In cases where a guardian ad litem has been appointed because the subject is unconscious or otherwise wholly incapable of determining his or her interests, even with assistance, counsel shall follow the guardian ad litem's determination of the subject's interests. In all other cases, counsel shall to the maximum extent possible ascertain directly the subject's determination of his or her legitimate interest.

(7) No later than five days prior to the initial hearing/status conference, file on behalf of the subject responsive pleadings to the petition. Responsive pleadings shall include with specificity facts upon which they are based. Responsive pleadings shall be served on petitioner, petitioner's counsel, all parties, those entitled to participate, those who filed an effective request for notice and other interested persons entitled to notice under D.C. Code §§ 21-2042 and 21-2053 by regular mail and shall have a certificate of service.

(8) Communicate with parties or their counsel to determine if a joint stipulation can be reached, or, absent stipulation, file with a responsive pleading the statements required by SCR-PD 321(f)(2).

(9) For any hearing other than the initial status conference, secure and present evidence to the Court concerning whether the petition should be granted and the terms, if any, on which orders should be entered; the nature of powers to be granted, modified or curtailed; and possible conflicts that may arise.

(10) File, as needed to represent the legitimate interests of the subject, petitions or motions pursuant to D.C. Code §§ 21-2044(c), 21-2046, 21-2047(c), 21-2049, 21-2055 and 21-2062. Notice shall be provided to the parties supported by the protected individual's estate in the manner prescribed by D.C. Code §§ 21-2042 and 21-2053.

(b) Counsel retained by the subject.

(1) An attorney retained for representation in the intervention proceeding by the subject of the petition subsequent to the appointment of counsel by the Court shall file a notice of appearance (Form I-D) as soon as practicable after being retained. The notice of appearance shall include a statement whether counsel was retained subsequent to appointment of counsel by the court. A copy of the notice of appearance shall be served on all persons entitled to notice, appointed counsel and any appointed guardian ad litem, visitor and/or examiner.

(2) The appearance of retained counsel shall become effective ten days after the date of the filing of the notice of appearance, or at the time of the next-scheduled hearing if held within ten days after the filing of the notice of appearance, unless objection to the notice of appearance is filed by any person entitled to notice, appointed counsel or any appointed guardian ad litem, visitor and/or examiner.

(3) If objection to the notice of appearance of retained counsel is filed, the Court shall as soon as practicable hold an ex parte hearing, attended only by the subject, appointed counsel, retained counsel, the person filing the objection and counsel representing such person, and any guardian ad litem, visitor and/or examiner appointed in the case.

(4) The Court may strike the appearance of counsel retained by the subject if, after the hearing provided for in this Rule, the Court finds that retained counsel has a conflict of interest which will prevent counsel from zealously representing the subject or if the Court finds that the entry of appearance of retained counsel would unduly delay trial of the case.

(5) The appearance of counsel for the subject appointed by the Court shall terminate when the notice of appearance of retained counsel becomes effective.

(c) Termination of appearance.

The appearance of counsel for the subject of an intervention proceeding shall terminate upon the disposition of the petition for which counsel's appearance was entered, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

COMMENT:

D.C. Code § 21-2031 and this Rule require counsel to act as a zealous advocate for the subject and not as a guardian, independent investigator or objective finder of fact. Counsel should file a responsive pleading consistent with the requirements of this Rule, such memoranda as is needed to address unique issues or special circumstances, or any pleading requested by the Court, but should not file a "report" or a pleading consisting of a general discussion of the case. In representing the subject, counsel should remain free from the influence of persons whose interests conflict with the subject's physical, mental or financial well-being. Counsel for the subject is free to make decisions with respect to the conduct of the intervention proceeding or other litigation.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 306

Rule 306. Guardian ad litem; duties and appointment.

(a) Guardian ad litem; members of the bar to be appointed.

Except for special cause shown no person other than a member of the District of Columbia Bar shall be appointed guardian ad litem.

(b) Guardian ad litem for subject of proceeding; petition.

(1) Upon petition of a party, or sua sponte, the Court may appoint a guardian ad litem for the subject of the proceeding.

(2) A notice (Form I-J) prescribed by SCR-PD 311 shall be served with the petition. The petition shall set forth the name, address, and telephone number of any limited guardian, guardian, limited conservator or conservator for the subject of the proceeding, the individuals most closely related to the subject by blood or marriage, and the individual or facility, if any, having custody of the subject. The petition shall set forth the facts and reasons supporting the request and the proposed specific duties of a guardian ad litem. If the appointment of a specific individual is sought, the name, address, telephone number and qualifications of that individual shall be given. The petitioner shall set forth facts to show that because of impaired ability to receive and evaluate information regarding the proceeding, or because of impaired ability to communicate decisions regarding the proceeding, the subject of the proceeding cannot determine the subject's own interests without assistance, and:

(A) No limited guardian or guardian for the individual has been appointed;

(B) The subject's interests and those of the subject's limited guardian or guardian conflict; or

(C) The appointment is otherwise required in the interests of justice.

(c) Proposed order.

Petitioner shall file with the petition a proposed order substantially in the format of PD Form I-F.

(d) Duties of guardian ad litem.

A guardian ad litem shall assist the individual for whom the guardian ad litem has been appointed to determine the individual's interests in regard to the legal proceedings in which the individual is involved. If the individual is wholly incapable of determining his or her own interests, the guardian ad litem shall make that determination and advise the individual's counsel accordingly. In so doing, a guardian ad litem shall:

(1) Inquire thoroughly into all the circumstances that a prudent individual in the position of the person for whom the guardian ad litem has been appointed would consider in determining his or her interests in the proceedings; and

(2) Encourage the individual whom the guardian ad litem is serving to participate, to the maximum extent of that individual's ability, in all decisions and to act on his or her own behalf on all matters in which he or she is able.

(e) Guardians ad litem for other persons.

Parties to an intervention proceeding or their counsel may apply, in the manner prescribed above, for the appointment of a guardian ad litem to prosecute or defend the interests of an individual other than the subject of a proceeding. If the Court determines that representation of those interests would otherwise be inadequate, it may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent those interests.

(f) Termination of appointment of guardian ad litem.

The Court, as a part of the record of the proceeding, shall set out its reasons for appointing a guardian ad litem, his or her specific duties and when the appointment shall terminate. The appointment of the guardian ad litem shall terminate upon the disposition of the petition for which the guardian ad litem was appointed unless otherwise directed by the Court.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 307

Rule 307. Creditor's claims.

A claimant whose presented claim has not been paid or whose claim has been denied in whole or in part may petition the Court for determination of the claim at any time before it is barred by the applicable statute of limitations by filing and serving on the conservator a petition for determination of claim (Form I-1). The conservator may file and serve on claimant a response to the petition within ten days.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 308 (2008)

(G) the amount and source of compensation previously allowed to all persons;

(H) a certificate of service, attesting that the petition and the Notice required by subsection (f) of this Rule were served at least twenty (20) calendar days prior to the filing of the petition; and

(I) whether the petitioner has been or has an agreement to be compensated from a source other than the estate or the Guardianship Fund. A conservator may include in a petition for compensation filed after the death of the ward an estimate of the number of hours that will be required to complete the administration of the ward's estate.

(2) Requests for payment from the Guardianship Fund. In addition to the requirements set forth in subsection (b)(1) above, when payment is sought from the Guardianship Fund, a guardian, conservator, guardian ad litem or attorney shall set forth the following information in the petition:

- (C) the basis of any hourly rate(s) of compensation.

(4) A Petition which does not conform to the requirements of this subparagraph 2 or 3 shall be deemed incomplete (as defined in the D.C. Court Standards for Submission of Petitions for Compensation Under the Guardianship Fund) and, within seven calendar days from the submission of the petition, shall be returned to the petitioner without being filed.

(c) Petitions: when filed.

(3) Interim Petition for Compensation. An interim petition for compensation for establishing a guardianship, conservatorship or entry of a protective order shall be filed promptly upon conclusion of the hearing establishing the guardianship, conservatorship, or protective arrangement but not later than 90 days after conclusion of the hearing.

(4) Service and Filing of the Petition. A petition for compensation may not be filed unless it has been served at least twenty (20) calendar days prior to the filing of the petition. The certificate of service shall include a provision showing compliance with this requirement.

The Court may rule on exceptions or objections with or without a hearing.

(f) Form of Notice of Petition for Compensation. The Notice shall be in the following form: NOTICE OF PETITION FOR COMPENSATION You are hereby notified that you may file written exceptions or objections to the Petition for Compensation with the Register of Wills and serve a copy thereof on the petitioner, all parties, and on anyone who has filed an effective request for notice within 20 calendar days of the mailing to you of this Notice of Petition for Compensation. COMMENT:

This rule is intended to implement the public policy of protecting incapacitated adults, and therefore no compensation may be paid from the assets of the subject without first being approved by the Court. Counsel retained pursuant to Rule 305(b) is subject to this requirement. For purposes of the Prompt Payment Act, a motion for reconsideration filed pursuant to Paragraph (h) of this Rule shall be deemed a new "request" for payment.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 309

Rule 309. Irregularities, delinquencies, insufficiencies, defaults and orders to show cause.

(a) Removal after warning.

Whenever the Register of Wills finds an irregularity or default in the administration of an intervention proceeding, the Register of Wills shall promptly notify the fiduciary responsible that unless the irregularity or default is corrected forthwith, the fiduciary may be removed from office. If the irregularity or default is not remedied, the Register of Wills shall report it to the Court which, after notice to the fiduciary and a hearing, may either remove the fiduciary and appoint a successor pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-2049(c) and/or § 21-2061 or excuse the irregularity or default or take other appropriate action.

(b) Removal without warning.

In extraordinary cases, the Court, either sua sponte or at the request of the Register of Wills, may order a summary hearing without giving the fiduciary prior notice or opportunity to correct an irregularity or default. After such hearing, the Court may take any appropriate action including excusing the irregularity or default.

(c) Show cause.

The Court, sua sponte or upon motion of the Register of Wills, may issue an order to show cause why any action should not be taken in proceedings subsequent to the appointment of a guardian or conservator, including proceedings to limit powers or remove or modify limitations on the powers of a guardian or conservator; to accept resignation of or remove a guardian or conservator; to object to or modify a guardianship report or conservatorship plan; and proceedings with respect to the administration of a conservatorship or guardianship.

COMMENT:

This rule consolidates the requirements for service of petitions and notices of hearings into one rule. The requirements for service of an initial petition for a general proceedings; or a petition for termination of a guardianship, conservatorship and protective proceeding; and service of the notice of hearing required by law, are set out in Paragraph (a). Paragraph (c) sets out the procedures for serving all other petitions in intervention matters, except for petitions filed under D.C. Code §21-2068 (dealing with conflict of interest transactions), for which specific service provisions are provided in Paragraph (b). Paragraph (c) also governs service of any notice of hearing on a petition filed after the initial petition. Implementing the procedures of Rule 322, this Rule distinguishes between service of petitions filed after the initial petition and service of a notice of hearing on such petitions.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 312

Rule 312. Discovery.

In any proceeding filed under the District of Columbia Guardianship, Protective Proceedings, and Durable Power of Attorney Act of 1986 (D.C. Code § 21-2001, et seq.), discovery, conducted in accordance with Superior Court Civil Rules 26 through 37, may be had only upon order of the Court entered pursuant to either a petition in the form provided in SCR-PD 302(a) or a request made in open court, with such limitations on the manner and scope of discovery as in its discretion the Court deems appropriate.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 313

Rule 313. Rule to Show Cause for recovery of possession of property.

(a) Petition for Rule to Show Cause.

When it is believed that any person is in possession of assets, papers, data or information of or about the subject's or ward's income, property, or estate, and is wrongly withholding the same, a petition may be filed for a Rule to Show Cause, directing such person to appear and show cause why such person should not (i) disclose all of the assets, papers, data and information of or about the subject or ward in such person's possession, (ii) disclose the location of the same and/or (iii) be required by the Court to turn over all of the same to the conservator or guardian of the subject or ward, or to provide access to same or take such other action as ordered by the Court.

(b) Content of the petition.

In addition to any other information required to be submitted to the Court under this Rule, the petition shall set forth with particularity the following facts, points and authorities:

- (1) a concise description of the assets, papers, data, or other information concerning the subject's or ward's income, property, or estate that is alleged to be wrongfully withheld by the individual named in the petition;
- (2) the name, address, telephone number and any other pertinent identifying information about the individual whose actions are to be subject to the order to show cause;
- (3) a statement of the jurisdiction of the Superior Court over the subject matter and such person;
- (4) the facts and law that would establish the right of the estate to demand production of the asset, paper, data or other information (including but not limited to its alleged connection to the assets of the estate or its relevance to the administration of the estate);
- (5) a concise demand for relief, such as production of a particular asset or data, reimbursement of monies to the estate, or other specific relief;
- (6) if the petitioner is not the conservator, guardian, ward or subject, the factual basis for the petitioner's standing to seek this relief; and
- (7) any other information that the petitioner determines to be relevant to the Court's decision to issue the order to show cause or reason(s), if any, why any of the foregoing information is not supplied.

The Petition shall also contain a Certificate of Service certifying that a copy has been served upon the Respondent and all parties by regular first-class mail.

(c) Certificate of Good Faith Effort of Petitioner.

The Petition for Rule to Show Cause shall contain a Certificate of Good Faith Effort of Petitioner certifying that despite a good faith effort, the petitioner has been unable to obtain the assets, papers, data and information sought. The certification shall set forth specific facts describing the good faith effort.

(d) Who may petition the Court.

The conservator, guardian or the subject or ward may file a petition hereunder. Any party or person who has been granted permission to participate under SCR PD 303(b) may also file a petition hereunder.

(e) Form of Order.

The hearing date shall be set not less than twenty-eight (28) days after the date of the Order. The Court may grant the Petition by executing an Order for Rule to Show Cause substantially in the following form:

(f) Service of the Order to Show Cause.

Upon the issuance of an order to show cause, service of a copy of that order and a copy of the petition shall be made as follows:

(1) Service upon the person allegedly in possession of the sought material shall be made in the manner prescribed by SCR-Civil 4(c).

(2) All other parties, interested persons and the subject or ward shall be served as provided in Superior Court Probate Rule 311.

(g) Proof of service.

(h) Response to Petition to Show Cause.

The person on whom the Petition to Show Cause is served shall file a responsive pleading to the Petition within ten (10) days.

(i) Plea of title.

If the responsive pleading asserts a plea of title, the Court shall treat the Petition for Rule to Show Cause as a complaint, provided the petitioner pays the complaint filing fee within ten (10) days of the Court order directing that the petition be treated as a complaint. The petition shall be dismissed if the fee is not paid.

(j) Expedited procedures; waiver of notice to Respondent.

Upon a request by the Petitioner for waiver of notice to the Respondent, and upon a finding by the Court that good cause exists for the waiver of notice, the Court may issue the Order to Show Cause without waiting for a response to the Petition. Upon the issuance of the Order to Show Cause, a respondent who has not already responded to the Petition, may file a responsive pleading at any time, up to the date therein specified for cause to be shown. The hearing date may be set less than twenty-eight (28) days after the date of the Order if the petitioner, for good cause shown, requests.

(k) Status hearing.

If a complaint filing fee has been paid, the Court may hold a status conference on the date set for cause to be shown, or such later date as the Court may direct, and enter such other orders as are just therein pertaining to the petitioner, respondent and such other parties and interested persons as deemed necessary by the Court. Superior Court Civil Rule 16 shall be applicable to actions covered by this Rule in which a complaint filing fee has been paid.

COMMENT:

This rule is based upon D.C. Code § 21-2055 and § 21-2062. This rule, like its counterparts, Rules 113 and 413, encompasses real property.

PART II
General Intervention Proceedings.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 321

Rule 321. Procedures for a petition for a general proceeding or for termination of a guardianship or conservatorship.

(a) Petition.

A general proceeding is initiated by filing a petition on Form II-A. The acceptance of the duties of the office of guardian and/or conservator shall be indicated on Form II-A (paragraph 14) or on Form II-A-1 as appropriate. A notice of hearing (Form II-J or II-J1) and proposed orders appointing counsel (Form I-E), and if sought, an examiner (Form II-D), a visitor (Form II-E) and/or, a guardian ad litem (Form I-F), shall also be filed, together with any filing fee. If petitioner seeks to have the Court waive appointment of a visitor or an examiner, petitioner shall specify the reasons in the petition. Each proposed order shall list the names and addresses of all parties and their counsel.

(b) Hearing.

Upon the filing of a petition, the Court must schedule a hearing.

(c) Service of the petition and notice of hearing.

Unless the petitioner is the subject of the petition, the petition and notice of hearing must be served upon those persons listed in Rule 325 and in accordance with Rule 311(a).

(d) Counsel.

Concurrently with scheduling a hearing, the Court shall enter an order appointing an attorney to represent the subject of the petition. If the petition discloses that the subject is represented by counsel, the Court shall appoint such person unless good cause to the contrary exist. The Register of Wills shall immediately serve a copy of the petition, order of appointment and notice of hearing on the appointed counsel, and appointed counsel shall forthwith file a notice of appearance (Form I-D).

(e) Examiner and visitor.

(1) The Register of Wills shall maintain a list of persons qualified to serve as examiners and visitors in general intervention proceedings. In making the appointments special consideration where appropriate may be given to any personal examiner or visitor whether or not on such a list whom the petition states is willing to serve as examiner or visitor and who is qualified and has had prior contact with the subject of the proceeding.

(2) Upon the entry of an order appointing an examiner or visitor, the Register of Wills shall send copies of the order to all parties and counsel and copies of the petition and notice of hearing to the examiner or visitor by first class mail.

(3) The examiner and the visitor so appointed shall file and serve on all parties written reports substantially in the format set forth in Forms II-F and II-G no later than 10 days before the date set for the initial hearing and shall perform the duties set forth in Rules SCR-PD 326 and 327 respectively.

(f) Pleadings prior to hearing.

No later than 5 days prior to the hearing, all parties and persons entitled to participate at the hearing shall file and serve, if appropriate:

(1) A responsive pleading which shall contain any admissions or denials of allegations in the petition, a statement of position and any prayers for relief;

(2) A statement as to whether the presence of the subject of the proceeding should be excused from the hearing, the reasons therefor and a statement as to whether the subject wishes the hearing to be closed;

(3) A petition for the appointment of additional examiners and/or visitors to evaluate the condition of the subject of the proceedings, with a statement of the reasons for the request;

(4) A petition for the appointment of a guardian ad litem pursuant to SCR-PD 306, with a statement of the reasons for the request and the proposed specific duties of the guardian ad litem

(5) Any current comprehensive evaluation or habilitation plan, current social, psychological, medical or other evaluation used for diagnostic purposes in the development of a current plan of treatment, or current plan of treatment for the subject; and

(6) A statement indicating whether the proceeding may be resolved at the hearing and, if so, the issues which must be determined by the Court at the hearing to effect that resolution and, if not, what issues remain to be determined and the best means for determining them.

(g) Hearing.

(1) At the hearing, each party or person granted permission to participate may present evidence in support of the relief sought by that party or participant. Unless the proceeding can be resolved at the hearing, the Court may enter an order for such further proceedings as may be necessary.

(2) If the Court sets a pretrial conference, pretrial statements substantially in the format set forth in PD Form II-1 shall be filed and served by all parties not later than 5 days before the pretrial conference. The Court may order the parties to file a joint pretrial statement.

(h) Temporary relief. While a petition for the appointment of a conservator or for other protective order is pending, and after preliminary hearing and without notice to others, the Court may enter an order to preserve and apply the property of the individual to be protected as may be required for the support of that individual or his or her dependents.

(i) Petition to terminate a guardianship or conservatorship. The procedures set out in this rule shall apply to a petition to terminate a guardianship or conservatorship.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 322

Rule 322. Procedures in general intervention proceedings subsequent to the appointment of a guardian or conservator and for resolution of disputes.

(a) Applicability.

This Rule applies to proceedings subsequent to the appointment of a guardian or conservator, including proceedings to limit powers, or remove or modify limitations on the powers of a guardian or conservator; to accept resignation of or remove a guardian or conservator; to object to or modify a guardianship report or conservatorship plan; and proceedings with respect to the administration of a conservatorship or guardianship.

(b) Initiation of proceeding.

Except as provided in SCR-PD 309, a proceeding subsequent to the appointment of a guardian or conservator must be initiated by filing a petition for the proceeding on the Form II-Q or a format substantially consistent with that form. The petition must state with specificity the grounds for the request. The petition must be accompanied by a notice of the right to respond to the petition or request an oral hearing on the petition or both.

(c) Service.

The petitioner must serve a copy of the petition and the notice required by Paragraph (b) upon each of the following and any other person upon whom service is required by statute or order of the Court:

- (1) The incapacitated individual;
- (2) The attorney of record for each party or person entitled to participate, or the party or other person entitled to participate if not represented by an attorney;
- (3) Any person who has filed an effective request for notice pursuant to SCR-PD 304.

(d) Response to Petition.

Any party or person entitled to participate who objects to the relief requested, or who desires an oral hearing, must file a response to the petition or request for an oral hearing, or both, and must include in the response the reasons therefore. The response must be filed within 10 days of personal service of the petition and notice or 13 days if the petition and notice has been mailed. The response must be served as provided in Paragraph (c).

(e) Hearing.

(1) Oral Hearing.

The Court in its discretion may schedule an oral hearing. If so, the Court must issue a notice of such hearing, which must be served by the petitioner as provided in Rule 311(c).

(2) Hearing Through Written Submission.

The Court in its discretion may rule on the petition without requiring all parties to appear before the Court, with the hearing held through written submission.

COMMENT:

This Rule allows the Court to conduct a hearing on a petition by written submission when the Court reasonably concludes that an oral hearing would be unnecessary. See In re Greene, 829 A.2d 506, 508 (D.C. 2003). (“[W]hile a hearing is required, a hearing need not inevitably be an oral one. Rather a hearing in certain circumstances may be held through written submission.”)

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 323

Rule 323. Procedures in proceedings for appointment of 6-month temporary guardian.

Upon the filing of a petition (Form II-C) pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-2046(b), the Court may appoint a temporary guardian who shall have the powers set forth in the previous order of appointment for a specified period not to exceed 6 months, if it is satisfied that an appointed guardian is not effectively performing duties and that the welfare of the incapacitated individual requires immediate action. Upon the entry of such an order, the authority of any permanent guardian previously appointed by the Court is suspended until the expiration of the period specified in the order. Upon the entry of such an order, the petitioner shall give notice (Form II-P) pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-2031 within 14 days after the appointment. Within 60 days after the termination of the appointment the temporary guardian shall file a report (Form II-M) with the Court and shall file such other report as the Court may direct.

COMMENT:

This proceeding is intended to be limited to the replacement of an existing guardian who is proven not to be effectively performing duties. The allegations with respect to ineffective performance of duties should be made with specificity. If additional relief is desirable (e.g., the expansion of the existing guardian's powers), a petition should also be filed pursuant to SCR-PD 322.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 324

Rule 324. [Repealed.]

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 325

Rule 325. Notice of hearing on petition for a general proceeding or petition for termination.

(a) Notice of hearing on petition for a general proceeding or petition for termination.

In proceedings for appointment of a guardian, a successor guardian, a conservator; or entry of a protective order; or for termination of a guardianship, conservatorship or protective arrangement, the petition and notice of hearing must be served upon:

- (1) The subject of the proceeding.
- (2) The spouse and the adult children of the subject, or, if none, the parents.
- (3) Any guardian, conservator, or custodian of the subject.
- (4) The agent/attorney in fact of the subject nominated in a durable power of attorney, if known.
- (5) If no one in (2) exists, to at least one of the nearest adult relatives of the subject, if any can be found.
- (6) Any person entitled to support by the subject.
- (7) Each person with a higher priority pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-2043 or § 21-2057, as applicable.
- (8) Any other person as the Court directs.
- (9) Any person who has filed an effective request for notice pursuant to SCR-PD 304 (Form I-C).
- (10) Any counsel retained by the subject and counsel for the subject in any other proceedings, if known to the petitioner.

(b) Form of notice.

The notice shall be as prescribed by Form II-J except that, in the discretion of the petitioner, Form II-J-1 may be used in lieu of Form II-J.

COMMENT:

Note that while D.C. Code § 21-2042(a)(3), and paragraph (5) of this Rule require notice to at least one of the nearest adult relatives if no one closer exists, notice may be given to others within the same class. Where the subject of the proceeding is a party to any other civil action, counsel should consider the applicability of SCR Civil 17(c) or SCR Domestic Relations 17(c) and the advisability of notifying opposing counsel in any pending action.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 326

Rule 326. Examiner, duties and appointment.

(a) Duties.

Any examiner appointed by the Court shall submit a written report to the Court in accordance with Form II-F and mail copies to all persons listed on the order appointing the examiner no later than 10 days before the hearing. The examiner shall attend the hearing unless excused by the Court.

In the report, the examiner shall make findings indicating whether the individual's ability to receive and evaluate information is impaired to such an extent that he or she lacks the capacity:

(1) To take those actions necessary to obtain, administer, and dispose of real and personal property, intangible property, business property, benefits, and income.

(2) To take those actions necessary to provide health care, food, shelter, clothing, personal hygiene and other care for him or herself so that serious physical illness is more likely than not to occur.

(3) To meet all or some essential requirements for his or her habilitation or therapeutic needs.

(c) Termination of appointment.

The appointment of an examiner shall terminate upon disposition of the matter unless otherwise directed by the Court.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 327

Rule 327. Visitor, duties and appointment.

(a) Appointment.

The Court may appoint an individual or an organization as visitor; however, when an organization is appointed the organization shall designate an individual to perform the duties of the office of visitor.

(b) Duties.

Any visitor appointed shall:

(1) Interview the subject of the proceeding; the petitioner; any person nominated by the petitioner to serve as guardian or conservator; and such other persons as the visitor deems appropriate;

(2) Visit the present place of abode of the subject of the proceeding and the place it is proposed that the individual will reside if the appointment is made;

(3) Investigate whether a conflict or potential conflict should preclude the appointment of a person who has been nominated as a guardian or conservator;

(4) Submit a written report in accordance with Form II-G to the Court and mail copies to all persons listed on the order appointing the visitor no later than 10 days before the hearing. The visitor shall nominate a person for appointment as guardian or conservator in the report if no person has been nominated; and

(5) Attend the hearing unless excused by the Court.

(c) Termination of appointment.

The appointment of a visitor shall terminate upon disposition of the matter unless otherwise directed by the Court.

The first report shall be due six months from the date of appointment of the guardian with each succeeding report due at six month intervals thereafter. The guardian shall also submit a report upon order of the Court on petition of any person interested in the ward's welfare and at such times as the Court may direct. Within 60 days of the termination of the guardianship, the guardian shall file a final report if assets were administered. If no assets were administered by the guardian, an affidavit in lieu of final report shall be filed. Guardianship reports shall be prepared on Form II-M and signed under oath.

(b) Service.

Guardianship reports shall be served upon all parties; upon any person who has filed an effective request for notice as provided in SCR-PD 304, and upon such other persons as the Court may direct.

The reports shall be served by first class mail within five days before or after the filing of the report. Proof of service shall be by certificate of service.

(c) Exceptions or objections to guardianship report; petition to modify.

Any exceptions, objections, or petitions to modify a guardianship report shall be filed pursuant to SCR-PD 322. In the event no response to the report is filed by any interested person the report will be placed in the file without Court review or other action.

(d) Suggestion of death.

Upon the death of an individual for whom a guardian is appointed, the guardian shall file a suggestion of death forthwith, and shall file report when required by subsection (a) of this rule.

Code § 21-2065 (b)* and (c), an individual conservatorship plan, together with a complete inventory of the estate designated by the order of the Court, unless the person appointed as temporary conservator pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-2055(c) is appointed as permanent conservator, in which case the filing of a second inventory shall not be required. The plan and inventory shall be substantially in the format prescribed by Form II-N. The inventory shall be verified by oath or affirmation of the limited conservator or conservator. If financial accounts are reported therein, a separate Probate Form 27 must be filed with the inventory including complete account numbers.

(b) Service. The limited conservator or conservator shall serve a copy of the plan and inventory upon the following individuals by first class mail within five days before or after the filing of the plan and inventory:

(1) The protected individual;

(2) All parties and their attorneys of record;

(3) The individual most closely related to the subject of the intervention proceeding by blood or marriage unless that individual's whereabouts is unknown and cannot be reasonably ascertained;

(7) The duly appointed guardian, if any;

(8) If no persons listed above exist, notice should be sent to any previously appointed visitor;

(9) Any person who has filed an effective request for notice pursuant to SCR-PD 304; and

(10) The Veterans Administration, if veterans benefits are being received by the protected individual. Proof of service shall be by certificate of service.

(1) Exhibit all checking account bank statements, cancelled checks, vouchers and any other documents evidencing cash transactions during the accounting period.

(2) Exhibit all passbooks, ledger sheets, statements of similar documents issued by a bank, trust company, savings and loan association brokerage firm or similar institution, reflecting the assets of the estate on deposit or on account therein and evidencing any transactions in such assets during the accounting period; and reconciliation of all cash balances.

(3) Where otherwise not ascertained in accordance with subparagraph (a)(1) above, file a written statement by each depository of cash balances on deposit therein and of all other assets (except tangibles) carried in the account as of the closing date of the accounting period.

(4) Exhibit certification or other statements of account of a custodian other than the conservator evidencing ownership of all securities carried in the account as of the closing date of the accounting period. In those cases in which a bank is acting as conservator, in lieu of exhibiting certificates, the bank may submit an affidavit executed by an officer of the bank, other than the officer signing the account, verifying the correctness of the securities and cash accounts held as of the closing date of the accounting period.

(b) Retention of documentation. A conservator shall retain all documentation of financial transactions until approval of the final account and disposition of any timely appeal from the approval of the final account.

(c) Hearing; objections to account. Upon the completion of the audit of an account the Register of Wills shall schedule a hearing on said account and mail a notice of hearing to all parties and persons entitled to receive a copy of the account. Objections to the account, if any, shall be filed and served on all persons entitled to a copy of notice of hearing on the account within 10 days after receipt of notice of the hearing.

(d) Liability of conservator to third parties. Matters pertaining to the personal liability of a conservator, pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-2074, shall be determined in a separate proceeding for accounting, surcharge, or indemnification or other appropriate proceeding or action. All such proceedings may be commenced by any party in interest by filing a complaint. Except as otherwise provided in these Rules, the procedure in such action shall be governed by the Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 332

Rule 332. Bonds.

(a) Condition of bond.

Any bond required by the Court pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-2058 shall be filed on a form prescribed by the Register of Wills. The condition of the bond shall be that the conservator shall faithfully discharge all duties of the trust according to law as such conservator and in all things obey such order as the Court shall make in the premises.

(b) Exemptions.

No bond shall be required of a bank or trust company authorized under District of Columbia law to act as conservator. If a person appointed as temporary conservator pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-2055(a) is subsequently appointed permanent conservator a new bond shall not be required and the original bond shall be increased as necessary.

(c) Penalty.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the penalty of the bond shall be in the amount of the value of the assets (real and personal) of the estate committed to the conservator's control plus one year's estimated income, minus the value of any securities deposited under arrangements that require an order of the Court for their removal and the value of any real estate that the conservator, by express limitation, lacks the power to sell or convey without prior Court authorization (obtained pursuant to SCR-PD 322).

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 333

Rule 333. Appraisal.

(a) Appraisal required.

In matters in which tangible personal property is subject to the continuing supervision of the Court, a limited conservator or conservator shall promptly engage upon qualification the services of a qualified appraiser to appraise all such property in the protected person's estate provided the value of said property, in the judgment of the fiduciary, exceeds the value of $ 1,000.00. If said property, in the judgment of the fiduciary, is valued at $ 1,000.00 or less, the fiduciary shall submit an affidavit setting forth the description and value of the tangible personal property. Without payment of additional court fees and subject to their availability the standing court appraisers may be engaged for this purpose.

(b) Filing.

An appraisal shall be filed by the limited conservator or conservator within sixty days after qualification.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 334

Rule 334. Termination of conservatorship.

(a) Termination by order. A conservatorship is terminated pursuant to an order of termination, entered in accordance with this rule.

(b) Termination upon death.

(1) Upon the death of the ward, the conservator shall file a notice of death forthwith. The conservator shall file a petition for termination, accompanied by a final account and report, within 60 days of the date of death.

(2) Cessation of expenditures. Upon the death of the ward, the conservator shall make no expenditures, except for expenses of administration and any expenditures authorized by the court. Any petition for authorization to make expenditures, other than for administration expenses, shall be filed no later than 30 days from the date of death. The petition need not be accompanied by a notice of hearing, and the court may act on the petition without a hearing.

(3) The hearing on the final account shall be held with the hearing on the petition for termination.

(4) Upon approval of the final account, the court shall enter an order of termination. The order of termination shall provide for expenses of administration and direct the conservator to file a verified statement evidencing transfer of the assets within 60 days of the order of termination, unless the court finds good cause for extending or shortening the time for filing the verified statement. The verified statement shall be filed together with a receipt evidencing final distribution and vouchers or cancelled checks evidencing any expenditures. If, despite diligent efforts, a receipt evidencing final distribution cannot be filed, the court may accept other evidence of distribution.

(5) In the event that the conservator is unable to make distribution of assets within the time required by the order of termination, the conservator shall, prior to the date on which the verified statement is due, file a petition for an order requiring that the estate assets be deposited in the Register of Wills Estates Deposit Account.

(6) If the estate of the ward consists of assets that are in need of protection, and no other fiduciary has been appointed, the conservator may, in the petition, advise the court of the need for protection and file with the petition a proposed order for the appointment of a Special Administrator. The court may thereupon appoint a Special Administrator pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-531.

(c) Termination in cases other than upon death.

(1) The ward, conservator, or any other interested person may file a petition to terminate the conservatorship.

(2) Upon the filing of the petition, the court shall schedule a hearing.

(3) In accordance with D.C. Code § 21-2031 and SCR-PD 311, the petitioner shall serve a copy of the petition and the notice of the hearing on the petition upon each of the following persons:

(A) the ward (if the ward is not the petitioner);

(B) the attorney of record for each party, or the party if not represented by an attorney;

(C) any person who has filed an effective request for notice pursuant to SCR-PD 304; and

(D) any other person upon whom service is required by statute or order of the court.

(4) If, after notice and hearing, the court determines that the petition should be granted, the court shall issue a preliminary order of termination and shall direct that the final account and report shall be filed within 60 days, unless the court finds good cause for extending or shortening the time for filing.

(5) Upon approval of the final account, the court shall enter a final order of termination. The final order of termination shall provide for expenses of administration and direct the conservator to file a verified statement evidencing transfer of the assets to the former ward or to such other person as the court determines is entitled to distribution. The verified statement shall be filed within 30 days of the order of termination, unless the court finds good cause for extending or shortening the time for filing the verified statement. The verified statement shall be filed together with a receipt evidencing final distribution and vouchers or cancelled checks evidencing any expenditures. If, despite diligent efforts, a receipt evidencing final distribution cannot be filed, the court may accept other evidence of distribution.

COMMENT:

This rule implements D.C. Code § 21-2075, which provides for termination of conservatorship proceedings. Although that section does not explicitly provide for an order of termination upon death of the protected individual, it appears to include an order of termination upon that event. See Treadway v. Montague-Elliston, 673 P.2d 331, 333 (Ariz. App. 1983) (construing a similar provision of the Uniform Probate Code).

Expenses of administration include court costs; bond premiums; approved fees of a conservator, guardian, attorney for the conservator, guardian or protected individual, examiner, visitor, or guardian ad litem; and bank service fees. See In re Estate of Dickson, 736 A.2d 1007 (D.C., 1999). It is the opinion of the committee, however, that expenses of administration do not include the debts of the protected individual. Whether there are allowable expenses other than administration expenses is an issue on which the committee takes no position, but it was thought useful to allow for that possibility in subparagraph (b)(2) of this rule.

The termination of a special conservatorship or other protective arrangement is governed by SCR-PD 330(f).

PART III
Fifteen-Day Temporary Guardianship Proceedings.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 341

Rule 341. Procedures in proceedings for appointment of 15-day temporary guardians.

(a) Petition.

A proceeding for the appointment of a temporary (15-day) guardian is initiated by filing a petition on Form III-A together with proposed orders appointing counsel (Form III-A-3), and a temporary guardian (Form III-D).

(b) Counsel.

Immediately upon receipt of the petition, the Court shall enter an order appointing an attorney to represent the individual alleged to be incapacitated. If the petition discloses that the subject of the petition is represented by counsel, the Court shall appoint such person unless good cause to the contrary exists. The Register of Wills shall immediately serve a copy of the petition, order of appointment and any notice of hearing on the appointed counsel, and appointed counsel, shall forthwith file a notice of appearance (Form I-D).

(c) Service.

The petitioner, promptly after appointment, shall serve a copy of the petition, orders of appointment and notice of appointment (Form III-B) on those entitled to notice under SCR-PD 325(a).

Proof of service shall be by affidavit filed within fifteen days of appointment or if a hearing is requested in accordance with paragraph (d), no later than the time of the hearing.

(d) Request for hearing.

The subject of the proceeding, counsel for the subject or any other person to whom notice is required to have been given may request a hearing within the time period of the appointment by filing a request for hearing (Form III-C). Upon receipt of such request, the Clerk shall schedule a hearing to be held within 48 hours before the Judge in Chambers.

(e) Request for extraordinary powers.

Upon the filing of a petition pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-2046(a) which requests the grant of any extraordinary powers listed in D.C. Code § 21-2047(c), the Clerk shall schedule a hearing before the Judge in Chambers to be held within 48 hours.

The Clerk shall notify all parties or their counsel, if any, by telephone of the hearing. Upon notification by the Clerk of the hearing, the petitioner shall immediately cause notice (Form III-E) to be personally served upon the subject of the petition and all persons to whom D.C. Code § 21-2042(a) and SCR-PD 325 (a) require notice if they can be found within the District of Columbia or, if they cannot be found within the District of Columbia, the petitioner may cause the substance of such notice to be communicated to them by any method of telecommunications reasonably calculated to result in immediate notification to them.

COMMENT:

There are two types of proceedings for the appointment of a temporary guardian. The first is for the appointment pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-2046(a) of a temporary guardian, whose authority may not extend beyond 15 days, when a life threatening emergency exists. Procedures in D.C. Code § 21-2046(a) proceedings are governed by SCR-PD 341. The second is for the appointment pursuant to D.C. Code § 21-2046(b) of a temporary guardian whose authority may not exceed six months when an appointed guardian is not effectively performing duties. Procedures in D.C. Code § 21-2046(b) proceedings are governed by SCR-PD 323.

Appointment of a D.C. Code § 21-2046(a) temporary guardian may not be necessary while a general proceeding is pending in light of the authority granted the Court by D.C. Code §§ 21-2044(d) and 21-2055(b)(1).

(2) After a petition is filed and is pending, the Court may conduct a preliminary hearing without notice and enter an order preserving and applying the property of the missing individual for the support of the individual or his or her dependents.

(c) Value of interest.

For the purpose of setting a bond pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-502(a), the amount of the bond shall be equal to the estimated value of the estate less the estimated net distributable share of each person waiving bond, calculated as if estate assets were applied to debts, funeral expenses, family allowance, administration expenses and distributions to heirs, legatees and other claimants in order of priority and according to law. For the purpose of setting a bond pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-502(a-1), the value of the interest in the estate of the person or creditor demanding bond shall be the estimated amount of the net distribution or disbursement due to that person or creditor, calculated as if estate assets were applied to debts, funeral expenses, family allowance, administration expenses and distributions to heirs, legatees and other claimants in order of priority and according to law.

INSTRUCTIONS

This form must be filed with the Register of Wills and a copy mailed to the Personal Representative(s) (or if none has been appointed, the person(s) whose appointment as Personal Representative(s) was requested on the Petition for Probate). Upon request for a bond, the Court may set a hearing to determine if a bond is required.

(e) Failure to file bond.

In its order requiring the filing or the increasing of a bond described above, the Court may direct that, if the bond is not so filed or increased within the time specified by this rule or the Court's order, the powers of the personal representative will, upon the expiration of that time period, automatically and without further order of the Court, be suspended until the filing or increase of the required bond. Upon such filing or increase, the original powers of the personal representative shall automatically be reinstated unless otherwise ordered by the Court. The failure to file or increase the required bond may subject the personal representative to removal proceedings in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-526 and SCR-PD 421.

(f) Waiver of bond.

The waiver of the personal representative's bond shall be in substantially the following format and may be accompanied by a consent to appointment of a personal representative as set forth in SCR-PD 402.

COMMENT:

Creditors who can become interested persons are only those creditors of the decedent, including those whose rights accrue at the time of death, who have timely presented a claim in excess of $ 500 that has not been barred or discharged, D.C. Code § 20-101(d)(1)(e). Claims are presented pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-903(a)(1), but claims that arise after the death of the decedent, such as expenses incurred in the administration of the estate, need not initially be presented to the personal representative, Poe v. Noble, 525 A.2d 190, 196 (D.C. 1987), and in fact become barred if no action is commenced on them within six months of when they arise, D.C. Code § 20-903(a)(2). See Grimberg v. Marth, 659 A.2d 1287 (Md. 1995) cf. John- son v. Martin, 567 A.2d 1299, 1305 (D.C. 1989) ("... on remand, therefore, the Court must first decide whether any claim against the estate [as opposed to a claim against Mr. Abrams himself] for an alleged breach of fiduciary duty is time-barred.") Accordingly, administrative creditors as distinguished from creditors of the decedent cannot become interested persons, because they cannot perfect their claims by presentation to the personal representative pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-903(a)(1).

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 405

Rule 405. Special administrators.

All the powers and duties applicable to supervised personal representatives shall be applicable to special administrators, except as otherwise provided by statute or Court Rule.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 406

Rule 406. Nonresident special administrators and personal representatives.

A personal representative or special administrator who is or becomes a non-resident of the District of Columbia, or who is continuously absent therefrom for more than 60 days, shall file with the Register of Wills a power of attorney as required by D.C. Code § 20-303(b)(7).

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 407

Rule 407. Proceedings in contested estate cases.

(a) An action to contest the validity of a will in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-305, or an action for payment of a claim in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-908 or to institute a plenary proceeding in accordance with D.C. Code § 16-3105 may be commenced by any party in interest only by filing a verified complaint with the Register of Wills.

(b) Any other claim for relief that is not required by statute or rule to be commenced by filing a petition may be commenced by filing a complaint or petition.

(c) Except as hereinafter provided, the procedure for actions commenced by filing a complaint, including service of process, shall be governed by the Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure.

(d) In a complaint brought pursuant to this rule to contest the validity of a will or to institute a plenary proceeding pursuant to D.C. Code § 16-3105, the defendants must be all interested persons, excluding creditors, and all persons needed for just adjudication under Civil Rule 19. In any other complaint against the estate, the defendants must be the personal representative and any other persons needed for just adjudication under Civil Rule 19. In a proceeding to contest the validity of a will, the plaintiff must give notice pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-103 to creditors who are interested persons and must prove service of the notice by certificate of service.

(e) Upon the request of the plaintiff in an action commenced by the filing of a complaint, the Register of Wills must issue a summons in a form prescribed by the Register of Wills.

(f) When a complaint is filed pursuant to this rule, the parties may proceed with discovery pursuant to Civil Rules 26 through 37.

(g) Within 120 days after a complaint has been filed, the Court must conduct an initial scheduling and settlement conference pursuant to Civil Rule 16(b).

(h)(1) Except as provided in Rule 413 and D.C. Code § 20-521, all contested matters that are initiated by petition must be treated as motions pursuant to Civil Rule 12-I(d) through (n). (2) Exceptions and objections to reports, petitions, or accounts must be treated as oppositions. The person filing the report, petition, or account may file a reply within 10 days of service of the opposition. The Court may permit discovery under this subsection upon a showing of good cause.

COMMENT:

This rule has been revised to set forth those actions required by statute or rule to be filed by complaint and to provide that other claims for relief not required by statute or rule to be filed as a petition may be filed by complaint or petition at the option of the filer. The amendment states who must be defendants and makes clear that the person filing the complaint must name the defendants in the complaint, whereupon the Register of Wills issues a summons to those named as defendants. The amended rule clarifies the notice and manner of service of notice that is required. In what now appears as subparagraph (g) of the rule, 60 days has been changed to 120 days to conform to current practice in the Probate Division. Finally, the amended rule separates petitions that must be treated as motions from exceptions and objections that must be treated as oppositions.

While other provisions of the rule may have been relocated in the rule and the paragraphs renumbered as required by these modifications, the rule otherwise remains substantially unchanged.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 408

Rule 408. Distribution to minors.

(a) Distributions to minors by a personal representative shall be made in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-1106.

(b) If Court approval is required or is otherwise requested by the personal representative for a distribution to a minor pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-1106, the personal representative shall file a verified petition which sets forth the following information:

(1) The name, residence and date of birth of each minor for whom distribution authority is sought, as well as the basis for the minor's entitlement to share in the estate;

(2) The total value of the estate assets to be distributed to each minor;

(3) The method of distribution proposed;

(4) The reason why distribution under D.C. Code § 20-1106(a) or (b)(1) is not permissible or desired;

(5) If authority is requested to establish a restricted account, also the name and location of the financial institution; and

(6) If authority is requested to distribute assets exceeding $ 10,000.00 in value under D.C. Code § 21-306:

(A) The reason why the transfer is in the best interest of the minor (D.C. Code § 21-306(c)(1));

(B) Facts to show the transfer is not prohibited by or inconsistent with the provisions of the will (D.C. Code § 21-306(c)(2)); and

(C) A representation that the personal representative will effect the transfer in accordance with D.C. Code § 21-309.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 409

Rule 409. Inventory and appraisals.

(a) In all estates the personal representative must prepare an Inventory of property owned by the decedent at the time of death reflecting the fair market value of the property as of the decedent's death and the type and amount of encumbrances on any item. Said Inventory must be delivered or mailed to each interested person within three months after appointment of the personal representative. While the supervised personal representative must file the Inventory with the Court unless excused from filing an inventory pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-731, such filing is discretionary for the unsupervised personal representative, unless otherwise directed by Court.

(b) Use of appraisers.

The supervised personal representative shall either make an appointment with the standing appraisers through the Register of Wills Office, or arrange for the use of special appraisers (as defined below), in preparation for the filing of an inventory in accordance with D.C. Code §§ 20-711, and/or 712. The unsupervised personal representative also may use the Court's standing appraisers or any qualified special appraisers in determining fair market value as of the decedent's death.

(c) Valuation of real estate.

For purposes of the requirements of D.C. Code §§ 20-711 and 712, both supervised and unsupervised personal representatives may inventory real property at the value placed thereon by the District of Columbia Department of Finance and Revenue for purposes of assessment and taxation for the fiscal year in which the decedent died. If the personal representative determines that any real property should be independently appraised, the fair market value shall be determined by an appraiser selected by the personal representative. Such appraiser shall be licensed or certified and approved by the District of Columbia Board of Appraisers pursuant to D.C. Code § 45-3201 et seq. [§ 42-3901 et seq., 2001 Ed.].

(d) Valuation of securities.

Valuation of securities shall be made as of the date of decedent's death and, other than as provided in D.C. Code § 20-712(a)(2), shall be made in accordance with principles set forth in federal estate tax regulations governing the valuation of securities for federal estate tax purposes.

(e) Special appraisers.

Special appraisers are defined as appraisers qualified to determine the fair market value of D.C. real and personal property who are not employed by the Court as standing appraisers. Qualified special appraisers shall be used by the supervised personal representative to appraise a decedent's interest in joint ventures, partnerships, business enterprises, cooperative apartments, coins and stamps and any other assets which the Register of Wills has determined that the standing appraisers do not ordinarily appraise.

(f) Inventory form.

In supervised administration, the Inventory shall be filed in substantially the following format, and accompanied by a separate Probate Form 27 with complete account numbers, if financial accounts are reported therein. In unsupervised administration the same form may be used:

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
PROBATE DIVISION

(b) Service of notice of action.

Notice given pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-908(a) and this Rule, shall be signed by the personal representative, and will be deemed to have been mailed or delivered by the personal representative if mailed or delivered either by the personal representative or an agent of the personal representative.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 412

Rule 412. Court order for authority to act.

(a) Petition.

Any petition filed by a personal representative pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-742 or, by a person pursuant to D.C. Code § 19-101.05 or D.C. Code § 20-107 (except as provided in D.C. Code § 20-107(c)) shall specifically identify the relief requested, the legal basis therefor (if any), and the reasons why such relief is believed to be appropriate. The petition shall be accompanied by a Certificate of Service.

(b) Hearings and notice of hearings.

If the Court determines that a hearing is necessary or advisable with regard to a petition filed:

(i) pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-107(b), the Court shall set a hearing and so advise the unsupervised personal representative; at least ten days prior to the hearing, the unsupervised personal representative shall give written notice of the hearing to the interested persons by certified mail or personal delivery; the unsupervised personal representative shall thereafter certify to the Court in writing that such notice has been given; or

(ii) pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-742 or otherwise under § 20-107, the Court shall set a hearing and give notice as provided in SCR-PD 4.

(c) Exercise of powers limited or restricted by Court order.

If the power granted to a personal representative in D.C. Code § 20-741 is limited or restricted pursuant to Court order, and it becomes necessary or advisable to exercise that power, the personal representative shall file a petition with the Court as provided in paragraph (a) above. In granting the relief requested in such a petition, the Court may impose whatever reasonable requirements it deems advisable under the circumstances of the particular matter to the extent necessary to address the reasons for the imposition of the limitation or restriction.

(d) Limited use of appraisals.

For the purpose of granting the relief requested in petitions filed under this Rule, the filing of an appraisal shall not be required unless the Court is being asked to resolve a dispute concerning, or to approve valuation in, a particular transaction. In addition, for the purpose of fixing or increasing the amount of a bond, if any, the inventoried value of property shall generally be used; if appropriate, an additional requirement may be imposed to require an increase in the amount of the personal representative's bond, equal to the excess of any proceeds over the inventoried values prior to the receipt of such excess proceeds.

COMMENT:

One example of the application of paragraph (c) would be as follows. If the restriction on a power to sell real or personal property was imposed at the request of the personal representative in order to avoid the cost of bonding the full value of that property, the Court shall require only that the bond be increased to the amount of the bond which would have been imposed if the restriction had never been requested.

Unless otherwise specified by either the statute or the Rules, any relief sought should be in the form of a petition under this Rule.

Technical revision made to correct error in reference to D.C. Code or D.C. Court Rules.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 413

Rule 413. Rule to show cause for recovery of possession of property of the estate.

(a) Petition for Rule to Show Cause.

When it is believed that any person is in possession of assets, papers, data or information of or about the decedent's estate and is wrongly withholding the same, a Petition may be filed for a Rule to Show Cause, directing such person to appear and show cause why such person should not disclose all of the assets, papers, data and information in such person's possession belonging to the estate and the location of the same and why such person should not be required by the Court to turn over all of the said assets, papers, data and other information to the personal representative, provide access to property or take such other action as ordered by the Court.

(b) Content of the Petition.

In addition to any other information required to be submitted to the Court under this Rule, the petition shall set forth with particularity the following facts, points, and authorities: (1) a concise description of the asset, papers, data, or other information concerning the decedent's estate that is alleged to be wrongfully withheld by the individual named in the petition; (2) the name, address, telephone number and any other pertinent identifying information about the individual whose actions are to be subject to the order to show cause; (3) a statement of the jurisdiction of the Superior Court over the subject matter and such person; (4) the facts and law that would establish the right of the estate to demand production of the subject asset, paper, data or other information (including but not limited to its alleged connection to the assets of the estate or its relevance to the administration of the estate); (5) a concise demand for relief, such as production of a particular asset or data, reimbursement of monies to the estate, or other specific relief; and (6) any other information that the petitioner determines to be relevant to the Court's decision to issue the order to show cause or reason(s), if any, why any of the foregoing information is not supplied.

(c) Good faith effort -- Certification of petitioner.

The Petition for Rule to Show Cause shall contain the petitioner's certificate that despite a good faith effort the petitioner has been unable to obtain the assets, papers, data and information sought. The certification shall set forth specific facts describing the good faith effort.

(d) Who may petition the Court.

The personal representative may file a petition hereunder. Any interested person may also file a petition hereunder against the personal representative and such petitioner shall suffice as an "application" for relief, as permitted in D.C. Code § 20-107.

(e) Form of Order.

The Court may grant the Petition for Rule to Show Cause without waiting for any response to the Petition by executing an Order for Rule to Show Cause substantially in the following form:

(c) The Court shall enclose, with each interested person's copy of a signed order extending the appointment of a personal representative, a copy of a notice in substantially the following form.

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
PROBATE DIVISION

NOTICE OF EXTENSION OF APPOINTMENT OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE(S)

The appointment of the personal representative(s) of the estate of a decedent is automatically terminated by operation of law on the date which is three years after that personal representative's appointment, unless the appointment is extended upon the request of the personal representative(s). As shown on the enclosed copy of this Court's Order, the appointment of the personal representative(s) of the estate in which you are interested has now been extended.

If at any time you have any questions about something being done during the administration of the estate, you should ask the personal representative(s) or the attorney for the estate. If you do not receive a satisfactory answer, you may consult your own attorney, or you may file a petition for appropriate relief with the Court.

COMMENT:

If the request is filed after the expiration of the personal representative's powers, the Court may apply greater scrutiny to the request.

D.C. SCR-PD Rule 430

Rule 430. Motions for reconsideration and other relief from judgment in decedent's estates.

(a) Generally.

Any person who participated in the determination of a trial court ruling, order, judgment or decree, in any matter not initiated by complaint and summons in a decedent's estate proceeding, may seek reconsideration thereof only on the following grounds: (1) the Court failed to consider a material fact or law upon which such matter was based; (2) the emergence of new material facts that could not have been discovered with due diligence or a change of law not previously brought to the Court's attention; (3) there was no discernible basis or reason given for the Court's order; (4) fraud (whether denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of another person or entity interested in the proceeding; (5) mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect; (6) the order pertains to a matter or matters on which no other interested person or party entered an exception, objection or otherwise contested the issues disposed of therein; or (7) any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the order. The motion shall be filed not later than 30 days after entry of the ruling, order, judgment or decree and prior to the entry of the order approving the final account.

(b) Exceptions to final probate account.

If the Court disposes of an exception to a final probate account through an order approving the final account or contemporaneously therewith, a motion for reconsideration may be made not later than 20 days after the entry of the order approving the final account.

(c) Effect on distribution of estate assets.

If a motion for reconsideration is made in connection with a ruling pertaining to an exception to a final probate account, actions or obligations of the personal representative may be suspended by Court order pursuant to SCR-PD 9 until the motion for reconsideration is disposed of.

(d) Hearing.

The Court may rule on a motion for reconsideration with or without a hearing.

(e) Time.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Superior Court Rules, the Court may not extend the time for bringing a motion for reconsideration. This Rule does not limit the power of a Court to entertain a motion to relieve a party from a ruling, order, judgment or decree, or to set aside a judgment, for fraud upon the Court.

(f) Clerical mistakes.

Clerical mistakes in a ruling, order, judgment or decree or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the Court at any time on its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the Court orders. During the pendency of an appeal, mistakes may be corrected before the appeal is docketed in the appellate court, and thereafter while the appeal is pending may be corrected only upon leave of the appellate court.

(g) Relationship to Superior Court Civil Rules.

If this Rule applies, SCR-Civil 59 and SCR-Civil 60 shall not apply.

COMMENT:

Pursuant to District of Columbia Court of Appeals Rule 4, the timely filing of a motion for reconsideration pursuant to this rule suspends the running of the time for filing a notice of appeal.

The mere filing of a motion for reconsideration does not suspend the proceedings or stay the ruling, order, judgment or decree that is the subject of the motion. The Court may enter a separate order pursuant to SCR-PD 9.

If an interested person or party has notice of an account or request for compensation and fails to file an exception to such account or request for compensation within the statutory period, such interested person or party lacks standing to bring a motion for reconsideration of the order approving the account.

This rule is similar to SCR-Civil 59(e) and SCR-Civil 60(b). Modifications have been made to accommodate practice in the Probate Division. It is expected that where provisions of this rule are substantially similar to the civil rules, case law interpreting the civil rules will be applicable to this rule.

"Judgment" as used in this rule includes a decree and any order from which an appeal lies.
