

Rule 101. Matters presented to the Register of Wills.

All ex parte matters and all orders prepared for the signature of the judge assigned to fiduciary matters shall be presented to the Register of Wills who shall review such matters and make such recommendations to the Court as may be appropriate. Unless otherwise provided by these Rules, only those forms prescribed by these Rules or by the Register of Wills shall be accepted for filing.